Cultural Linguistics and Critical Discourse Studies Monika Reif, Frank

Polzenhagen, 2023-11-15 The present volume explores the meeting ground between Critical Discourse Studies and Cultural Linguistics The contributions investigate culture specific conceptualisations ways of framing and conceptual metaphors in political discourse as well as cultural models cultural stereotypes and stereotyping The individual authors use quantitative e g corpus based approaches and or qualitative methods They address a range of contexts e g Europe the US Japan West Africa and a variety of topics e g migration presidential elections identity food culture concepts of health The papers included in this volume show that ideologies the key concern of Critical Discourse Studies cannot be analysed independently of cultural conceptualisations In a complementary dialectic fashion cultural conceptualisation the central concern of Cultural Linguistics have ideological implications sometimes subtle sometimes very straightforward The present volume thus illustrates that travelling on this meeting ground is a natural and fruitful endeavour for both approaches
