We Love Death As You Love Life Britains Suburban Terrorists:

'We Love Death as You Love Life' Raffaello Pantucci, 2015 Case study of how extremist Islamist thought can capture the imaginations of young Western Muslims a close examination of the 7 7 bombers in London Exporting Global Jihad Tom Smith, Hussein Solomon, 2020-06-11 This timely 2 volume edited collection looks at the extent and nature of global jihad focusing on the often exoticised hinterlands of jihad beyond the traditionally viewed Middle Eastern centre As ISIS loses its footing in Syria and Iraq and al Qaeda regroups this comprehensive account will be a key work in the on going battle to better understand the dynamics of the jihads global reality Critically examining the global reach of the jihad in these peripheries has the potential to tell us much about patterns of both local mobilisation and local rejection of a grander centrally themed and administered jihad Has the periphery been receptive to an exported jihad from the centre or does the local rooted cosmopolitanism of the jihad in the periphery suggest a more complex global relationship These questions and challenges are more pertinent than ever as the likes of ISIS and many commentators attempt to globally rebrand the jihad and as the centre reasserts its claims to the exotic periphery Edited by Tom Smith Portsmouth Kirsten E Schulze LSE and Hussein Solomon UFS the two volumes critically examine the various claims of connections between jihadist terrorism in the periphery remote Islamist insurgencies of the periphery and the global jihad Each volume draws on experts in each of the geographies in question The global nature of the jihad is too often taken for granted yet the extent of the global connections deserve focused investigation Without such inquiry we risk a reductive understanding of the global jihad further fostering Orientalist and Eurocentric attitudes towards local conflicts and remote violence in the periphery This book will therefore draw attention to those who overlook and undermine the distinct and rich particularities of the often contradictory and cosmopolitan global jihad In many of the peripheries particularly those with intensive large scale insurgencies there is extensive international military alliance The Bush doctrine to fight them over there so we don't have to fight them over here certainly looks to be alive and well in places like Somalia the Philippines and Niger amongst many others Crucially we must ask is such reasoning sound is the threat global and if so in what way Furthermore is action in the peripheries under the guise of combating the global jihad overlooking the local issues and threatening to make a wider threat where it was otherwise contained Diagnosing nations or regions as breeding grounds or sanctuaries of global jihad carries the spectre of having to choose sides in a battle of civilisations which looms over a number of developing nations reliant on good western relations States Without People Billie Jeanne Brownlee, Mazyar Ghiabi, 2025-04-10 The horizon of emancipatory politics is in ruins scarred by defeats and ongoing conflicts Under the auspices of technocapitalist elites and their political allies a reactionary turn tightens its grip on the world Civil wars and regional conflicts are surging The Middle East has become the regional laboratory for a global reconfiguration of power States Without People explores how revolts that preceded the outbreak of war have fostered a right wing political culture In a nuanced discussion of the defeat of popular revolts and the rise of mythological politics hypermilitarism and ethnosupremacism Billie Jeanne Brownlee and Maziyar Ghiabi take readers into the phenomenological depths of citizen politics in Israel Lebanon Syria Iraq Iran and Egypt across the Arabian Peninsula and beyond The book highlights three pivotal moments the outbreak and defeat of popular revolts the ensuing civil wars and the complex displacement that has forced millions from their homes States Without People advances a paradigm shift in state citizen relations from the vantage point of the Middle East In the state without people there is no ideological space for a heterogeneous or self contradictory citizenry only for partisans whose interests overlap with the state and for enemies
