Think Like a Curator Donna R. Braden, 2025-04-01 Most history museums large and small indoor and outdoor have a staff member with the title of curator or at minimum have tasks that can be classified as curator's work. But understanding what is involved in doing this work is more complicated than it seems. This book will help you to think like a curator. Written by an author who has spent 45 years doing this type of work at one of the largest history museums in the country, this book guides the reader through curatorial methodology in today's world with topics that include reading objects, shaping collections, engaging in rigorous research, the curatorial role in exhibitions and historic site interpretation, the basics of curatorial writing, and curators as leaders. It gives special focus to applying DEAI lenses as well as aligning with institutional mission and goals, incorporating audience perspectives and using conceptual and systems thinking. Both succinct and substantial, this book includes easy explanations, step-by-step processes, practical tips, real-life examples, activities, and source lists.

International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography Second Edition Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender, race, nationality, location, and other factors. In other words, the things that make people and places different. Questions of, for example, politics, economics, race relations, and migration are introduced and discussed through a geographical lens. This updated edition will assist readers in their research by providing factual information, historical perspectives, theoretical approaches, reviews of literature, and provocative topical discussions that will stimulate creative thinking. Presents the most up-to-date and comprehensive coverage on the topic of human geography. Contains extensive scope and depth of coverage. Emphasizes how geographers interact with, understand, and contribute to problem solving in the contemporary world. Places an emphasis on how geography is relevant in a social and interdisciplinary context.

Modernist Objects Xavier Kalck, 2021-01-05 Modernist Objects Literature, Art, Culture is a unique mix of cultural studies, literature, and visual arts applied to the discrete materiality of modernist objects. Contributors explore the many tensions surrounding the modernist relationship to objects, things, products, and artefacts through the prism of poetry, prose, visual arts, culture, and crafts.

Advanced Qualitative Research for Nursing Joanna Latimer, 2009-02-12 This collection presents up-to-the-minute qualitative research methodologies creatively developed by and within nursing. The book is written by authors at the forefront of their fields. It is aimed at enabling people to research critical issues for nursing practice and health care. Nurses face the imperative for practice grounded in research-based evidence. The book demonstrates how qualitative methodologies can produce rigorous and valid research. Drawing on empirical data, each chapter introduces a particular contemporary approach, examines the literature in its field, discusses its relevance for nursing and health care, and explains what claims to knowledge can be made.

American Material Culture Ann Smart Martin, J. Ritchie Garrison, Henry Francis du Pont, Winterthur Museum, 1997 The fourteen essays in this volume provide an important cross section of new research on the current state of American material culture scholarship.
