The background of the cover is a painting of a cathedral interior. In the center, a young woman with long, wavy, reddish-brown hair is seen from behind, looking out through two large, arched stained-glass windows. The windows feature intricate designs in various colors. The cathedral's architecture, including its vaulted ceiling and stone pillars, is visible in the background. The lighting is warm, with a strong orange glow coming from the windows and a greenish light on the left side.

This study is concerned with how readers are positioned to interpret the past in historical fiction for children and young adults Looking at literature published within the last thirty to forty years Wilson identifies and explores a prevalent trend for re visioning and rewriting the past according to modern social and political ideological assumptions Fiction within this genre while concerned with the past at the level of content is additionally concerned with present views of that historical past because of the future to which it is moving Specific areas of discussion include the identification of a new sub genre Living history fiction stories of Joan of Arc historical fiction featuring agentic females the very popular Scholastic Press historical journal series fictions of war and historical fiction featuring multicultural discourses Wilson observes specific traits in historical fiction written for children most notably how the notion of positive progress into the future is nuanced differently in this literature in which the concept of progress from the past is inextricably linked to the protagonist s potential for agency and the realization of subjectivity The genre consistently manifests a concern with identity construction that in turn informs and influences how a metanarrative of positive progress is played out This book engages in a discussion of the functionality of the past within the genre and offers an interpretative frame for the sifting out of the present from the past in historical fiction for young readers      The Power of One Bryce Courtenay, 2011-05-20 First with your head and then with your heart So says Hoppie Groenewald boxing champion to a seven year old boy who dreams of being the welterweight champion of the world For the young Peekay it's a piece of advice he will carry with him thr      A Deep Breath of Life Alan Cohen, 1996-08-01 TAKE A DEEP BREATH OF LIFE WITH ALAN COHEN Consider this book a hand to hold as you scale the mountain of your destiny In just a few minutes each day you can step back from your worldly activity and draw in a deep breath of spiritual renewal You might like to savor each message in the morning to start your day on a positive keynote and or review your day in the light of the principles Each day's message includes a theme a quote of wisdom a parable or real life anecdote a prayer and an affirmation After reading the day's message close your eyes for a few moments and be with the prayer and affirmation Take these powerful ideas into your subconscious and allow the truth to shine away any darkness The spirit within you will expand miraculously as you nourish your inner being There is no limit to the healing inspiration and positive changes you can enjoy through applying the principles contained between these covers March on to the high calling of your heart and your life will be a testament to the magnificence that is you      Jack Of Diamonds Bryce Courtenay, 2012-11-12 During the Great Depression there was little hope for a boy born into the slums of Cabbagetown Toronto But Jack Spayd is offered a ticket out in the form of a Hohner harmonica won by his brutal drunken father in a late night card game Jack makes music as a way of escaping his surroundings and his talent leads him to a jazz club and eventually to the jazz piano Jack is a virtuoso and hits the road enchanting audiences in Canada wartime Europe and Las Vegas where he is caught up in the world of elite poker and falls under the spell of his boss the enigmatic Bridgett Fuller Vegas is a hard town ruled by the Mafia but Jack prospers until his luck turns bad and he falls foul of the Mob Forced to run for his life from Vegas he must also leave the woman he adores His adventuring takes him to the far reaches of Africa to a rare and valuable bird that may seal his fate and to the love of a very different woman Set across three continents Jack of Diamonds is a spellbinding story of chance music corruption and love and Bryce Courtenay's last novel Jack of Diamonds is classic Courtenay The Age      Jessica Bryce Courtenay, 2010 Bryce Courtenay's bestselling novel is based on the true story of an unforgettable woman Jessica who rebels against the rules of her society When a crime is committed Jessica must fight for what she loves until the end and then at last her se      Useless Beauty Ann Elias, 2015-10-05 The story of Australian art does not begin and end with landscape This book puts flowers front and centre because they have often been ignored in preference for more masculine themes Departing from where studies of single flower artists leave off Useless Beauty embraces the general topic of flowers in Australian art and shines new light on a slice of Australian art history that extends from 1880 to 1950 It is the first book of broad chronology to discuss Australian art through blossoms which it does by addressing stories of major figures including Hans Heysen Margaret Preston and Sidney Nolan as well as specific objects
