The Symbols of the Apocalypse Alan Mills, 2015-11-29 The Symbols of the Apocalypse The Great Throne Visions the Second Cycle Volume IV Volume IV in the series introduces us to the Second Cycle of the Great Throne Visions It begins with a profound silence in heaven As the silence slowly fades away the Prophet sees Seven Angels who were given Seven Trumpets The Seven Angels do not suddenly enter the scene at this point in the narrative Like the other figures in John's visions they were already in place and merely waited the moment when the Prophet would See them Led by Another Angel the Angels of the trumpets announce the intensification of the cosmic storm The cosmic convulsions begin immediately Terrible unbearable thunder crashes amidst blinding flashes of lightning The horror reaches its height at the onset of a great shaking of the earth a disaster made fearful indeed by the frightening groaning of the earth itself At this ominous and apocalyptic moment the Seven Angels raise their trumpets to their lips take a deep breath and prepare to blow It is beyond the scope of this brief introduction to mention the actions resulting from the sounding of the Seven Trumpets Instead we will offer the reader John's description of two terrible scenes that accompany the sounding of the Fifth and Sixth trumpet The Creatures from the Bottomless Abyss Then the fifth angel trumpeted and I saw a star fly from heaven and alight on the earth He was given the key to the shaft of the abyss When he opened the shaft to the abyss smoke poured out of the shaft like smoke from a great furnace The sun and the atmosphere were obscured by the smoke from the shaft Out of the smoke and onto the earth came locusts with the capacity to sting like scorpions They were commanded not to harm the grass of the earth nor any green thing nor any tree but only those men who did not have the seal of God on their foreheads They were not allowed to kill men out right but only to torture them for five months and the torture they inflicted was like the sting of a scorpion In those days men will seek death and will not find it They will long to die but death will flee from them The locust resembled horses equipped for war On their heads were something resembling golden crowns Their faces were like the faces of men but they had hair like the hair of women Their teeth were like a lions fangs and their scaly chests resembled breastplates made of iron The noise of their wings was like the sound of many horse drawn chariots charging into battle And they have tails with stingers like scorpions Despite the impact of these terrible Judgments the Earthdwellers refuse to repent But the rest of mankind those who survived these plagues still refused to repent of their handiwork They continued to worship demons and images made of gold silver bronze stone and wood which can neither see nor hear nor walk And they refused to repent of their premeditated murders their magical drug induced spells their sexually orientated idolatry and their thefts He that Has an Ear let Him Hear

Heavenly Imagery and Symbolism in Matthew's Gospel Daehoon Kang, 2023-11-21 The present study explores the role of heavenly imagery and symbolism in the Gospel of Matthew Historical background and narrative criticism are my main methods because the Old Testament and Second Temple Jewish texts form the historical backgrounds for the understanding of Matthew's heaven and Matthew uses heavenly imagery and symbolism to highlight his main themes in the gospel as a whole This study investigates Matthew s distinctive materials and important texts having to do with heaven exploring their meanings and establishing their roles in each narrative section Matthew describes heaven as the space where certain events reveal God s plan of salvation Heaven is associated with such key matters as revelation and judgment Each major discourse of Matthew focuses on heavenly imagery with judgment at its end culminating in the parable of the sheep and the goats Matt 25 31-46

After Dispensationalism Brian P. Irwin, 2023-05-03 What God wants his people to know about the end times Christians fixation on the end times is not new While eschatological speculation has sometimes resulted in distraction or despair Scripture does speak about the end So what does God most want us to know and do with prophecy In After Dispensationalism Brian P Irwin and Tim Perry sympathetically yet critically sketch the history beliefs and concerns of dispensationalism Though a minority view in the sweep of church history and tradition dispensationalism is one of the most influential end times systems today and there is much to learn from it And yet sometimes it gets sidetracked by overlooking the prophets main concerns Irwin and Perry reexamine the key texts and show that Ezekiel Daniel and Revelation primarily give a word of hope to God s people

The Apocalyptic Letter to the Galatians James M. Scott, 2021-05-18 One apocalyptic reading of Paul s letter to the Galatians has been attempted before and is now widely accepted but that reading is not based on a thorough engagement with Jewish apocalyptic traditions of the Second Temple period In this book James M Scott argues that there is an essential continuity between Galatians and Paul s Jewish past and that Paul uses the apocalyptic Epistle of Enoch 1 Enoch 92-105 as a literary model for his own letter Scott first contextualizes the Epistle of Enoch using the entire Enochic corpus and explores the extensive similarities and some significant differences between the Enochic tradition and early Stoicism Then he turns to deal specifically with Paul s letter to the Galatians showing that despite their obvious differences the two apocalyptic letters have some remarkable features in common as well This approach to the interpretation of Galatians fundamentally stands to change the way biblical scholars understand Paul s letter and the gospel that he preached Paul is within Judaism if the net for what is included in Judaism is wide enough to encompass the Enochic tradition
