Making

Sense of Christ and the Spirit Wayne A. Grudem, 2011-02-01 Wayne Grudem's Systematic Theology is required reading in many courses on biblical theology and with good reason. The textbook's emphasis on the scriptural basis for each doctrine along with its clear writing and contemporary approach make it an indispensable resource for many Christians. This series presents as a separate book each of the seven main parts that make up the 1,600 page Systematic Theology, making it more portable, affordable, and less daunting. Part 4, Making Sense of Christ and the Spirit, explores Jesus Christ as fully God and fully man in one person. Important Topics Include: The Person of Christ, including the virgin birth, uniting full deity and humanity in one person while enabling Christ's humanity to be without inherited sin; and the incarnation, the act of God the Son whereby he took himself a human nature. The Doctrine of the Atonement, the work Christ did in his life and death to earn our salvation; Jesus Resurrection and Ascension, affirming the goodness of God's original creation of man as a creature with a physical body that was very good and his rightful place in glory and honor that had not been his before as the God-man. Written in a friendly tone appealing to the emotions and the spirit as well as the intellect, Making Sense of Christ and the Spirit helps readers overcome wrong ideas, make better decisions on new questions, and grow as Christians.

Life Is Short Compared to

Eternity Richard Trayler, 2010-11 Who was and is Jesus Christ? What is the gospel of Jesus Christ? Is the Bible trustworthy? How can the gospel of Jesus Christ benefit you? Apologetics: What are the central teachings of Islam, atheism, and secular socialism, and why do these fail to measure up to Biblical Christianity? Polemics: What are the major yet to be fulfilled biblical prophecies and how will these affect you? Prophecy: The Bible says that God created you in His image that God loves you and wants to have a personal relationship with you. How can you know God and have a personal relationship with Him? How can you grow and mature spiritually? Spiritual Growth: How can you share your faith with others? Witnessing and Evangelism: How can you help other believers grow and mature spiritually? Discipling: Come along with me and consider the answers to these and other questions that have eternal significance to you. This will be an exciting journey as you discover God's plan for an abundant life for you now and forever if you place your faith in the gospel of Jesus Christ.

The Secularization of Baptism Mark G. McKim, 2025-01-31 Does God actually do anything in baptism Is it more than just a symbol Most early Baptists would have answered yes Most Baptists today would answer no How and why did this change happen and does it matter Providing thorough documentation of the changing understandings of baptism among American Canadian and English Baptists from the 1600s to the present day The Secularization of Baptism demonstrates that four factors led to the symbolic only position becoming dominant These were suspicion in reaction to Roman Catholicism of the idea of God revealing himself through the physical the influence of the Enlightenment and embarrassment with claims that God could be acting in the world today reaction against the Oxford Movement and reaction against the understanding of baptism advocated by the Disciples of Christ Campbellites The now dominant symbolic only position so focuses attention on what the believer is doing in baptism that God is seen as largely absent from and doing nothing through the rite in effect believers baptism has been secularized A carefully reasoned biblical and theological argument is made for a return to the Regular Particular Baptist view that God is both profoundly spiritually present and active in baptism while at the same time rejecting the sacramentalist position advocated by a small number of mid twentieth and twenty first century Baptists such as H Wheeler Robinson George Beasley Murray Stanley K Fowler and Anthony R Cross
