We Real Cool Black Men And Masculinity:

We Real Cool bell hooks, 2004-08-02 Bell hooks brilliant and controversial new book We Real Cool Black Men and Masculinity goes beyond the usual analysis of the black to ask questions which other books are unwilling to address

Diversity and Multiculturalism Shirley R. Steinberg, 2009 This reader demands that we understand diversity and multiculturalism by identifying the ways in which curriculum has been written and taught and by redefining the field with an equitable lens freeing it from the dominant cultural curriculum The book problematizes the issue of whiteness for instance as not being the opposite of blackness or person of color but rather a meta description for our dominant culture Issues are also addressed that are usually left out of the discussion about diversity and multiculturalism this reader includes essays on physical diversity geographic diversity and difference in sexualities This is the quintessential collection of work by critical scholars committed to redefining the conversation on multiculturalism and diversity Crossing into Manhood: A Men's Studies Curriculum Christopher P. Mason, 2006 Many scholars have documented and decried the crisis in American masculinity There is a preponderance of evidence showing that males suffer from many physical emotional and social ills due to the gender scripts with which they were raised and which continue to govern men's lives Throughout the millennia and across cultures initiation rites of passage have been utilized as an effective means of transitioning young males into manhood Modern culture suffers from a dearth of rites of passage leaving many boys stuck in puerile attitudes and behaviors and unable to make a wholesome transition into mature masculinity Crossing into Manhood is a much needed guide on assisting late adolescent boys transition into manhood it proposes a school based curriculum and rite of passage paradigm to help young men make the difficult passage into manhood Utilizing resources from diverse academic disciplines this book surveys the psychoanalytic the social constructionist and the essentialist perspectives on masculine gender As a result a men's studies curriculum has been formulated one that offers a balanced bio psycho social conceptualization of masculine identity Educators will find the contents of this book helpful in providing the key conceptual information necessary to teach a men's studies course to late adolescent boys This book will provoke further dialogue and work among educators and other adults in this important area Publisher's website Authenticity and Imagination in the Face of Oppression Monica Joy Cross, 2016-09-22 To live authentically and with integrity in the face of a rampant oppression which daily seeks to sequester the spirit and rape the soul one must recognize themselves as one with the God and in this move each day with an authority grounded in a great mystical love which really has no words Authenticity and Imagination in the Face of Oppression is an autobiography of faith It is the life of a black transgender woman living a life of faith in the face of institutional and economic oppressions and the cultural and social stigma of racism and transgender phobia This book emerges then as a strategy for liberation by nourishing the soul through the provocative acts of prayer memory sharing and acting thus making real a sure hope grounded in the divine call of Isaiah 61:1 Authenticity and Imagination in the Face of Oppression is a hopeful discourse on mysticism in the context of loving one's God and oneself within a lived communal reality of earth embodiment and the development of a sacred space of irresistible hope Africana Cultures and Policy Studies Z. Williams, 2009-06-08 This book introduces Africana Cultures and Policy Studies as an interdisciplinary field of study rooted in the historical experience of people of African descent and focusing on policy development analysis and practical application Conscious Women Rock the Page: Using Hip-Hop Fiction to Incite Social Change Marcella Runell Hall, 2008 Three award winning activists and novelists Black Artemis E Fierce and J Love join social justice educator Marcella Runell Hall and a diverse team of seasoned educators to develop this collection of engaging and timely standards referenced lesson plans for 6-12 and beyond These lessons explore the tools of oppression that keep us divided such as violence patriarchy and racism The lessons are based on the popular books The Sista Hood On the Mic Picture Me Rollin and That White Girl Hip-hop Revolution Jeffrey Ogbonna Green Ogbarr, 2007 As hip hop artists constantly struggle to keep it real this fascinating study examines the debates over the core codes of hip hop authenticity as it reflects and reacts to problematic black images in popular culture placing hip hop in its proper cultural political and social contexts Masculinity, Femininity, Appearance Ideals, and the Black Body Kristie A. Ford, 2006 Building on Resilience Fred A. Bonner II, 2023-07-03 How do we fix the leaky educational pipeline into a conduit of success for Black males That the issue is critical is demonstrated by the statistics that only 10% of Black males in the United States are proficient in 8th grade reading only 52% graduate from high school within four years and only 35 percent graduate from college This book uniquely examines the trajectory of Black males through the educational pipeline from pre school through college In doing so it not only contributes significantly to the scholarship on the experiences of this population but bridges the gap between theory and practice to provide frameworks and models that will improve these young men's educational outcomes throughout their educational journeys A compelling feature of the book is that it does not treat Black males as homogeneous but recognizes the diversity that exists among Black males in various educational settings It demonstrates the need to recognize students intersectionalities and individual characteristics as an essential preliminary to developing practices to improve outcomes at every educational stage Throughout the contributing authors also focus on the strategies and experiences of Black males who achieve academic excellence examining growth producing and asset based practices that can be sustained and that build upon the recognition that these males have agency and possess qualities such as resilience that are essential to their learning and development The frameworks and models that conclude each chapter are equally commendable to K-12 educators and administrators higher education faculty student affairs practitioners and administrators and policymakers for whom templates are provided for rectifying the continuing inequities of our educational system Kentucky Law Journal , 2005 One More River to Cross Nigel I. Malcolm, 2008 In One More River to Cross Professor Nigel I Malcolm argues that the rhetoric of W E B Du Bois contributed to a sense of individual and group failure among African Americans Du Bois also created a need to explain the reasons for the failure of the group as well as that of individuals within the group specifically those within a segment of the black population deemed the talented tenth Professor Malcolm s work explores not only the root causes of this sense of failure among Blacks but also the way in which some members of the talented tenth seek to cope with failure Critiquing the writings of Derrick Bell Randall Robinson and Shelby Steele Professor Malcolm reveals the ways in which these authors explain the choice of an individual or a society between consolation and or compensation for perceived failures among Blacks He argues that whether an author emphasizes the past or the present the spiritual or the material the self or the society the inevitable result is a powerful rhetoric with implications for the future of race relations as well as advancement among Blacks in America The discussion of rhetoric is tied into the failure of the post civil rights era and to W E B Du Bois s earlier discussions of the talented tenth and its role among Blacks

Ideologies of Marginality in Brazilian Hip Hop Derek Pardue,2008-06-15 In the land of samba there is another vibrant culture capturing the attention of urban youth This compelling account argues that hip hop while certainly a product of globalized flows of information and technology is by no means homogenous Using more than five years of anthropological fieldwork in S o Paulo Brazil s largest city Pardue represents culture as generative and thus meaningful as a set of practices When interpreted in this manner local hip hoppers become closer to what they claim to be subjects rather than objects of history and everyday life In his ethnography the first in English to look at Brazilian hip hop Pardue highlights the analytical categories of race class gender and territory
