Mentoring Programs That Work Jenn Labin, 2017-02-15 Amazing Benefits Unique Risks A stellar mentor can change the trajectory of a career And an enduring mentoring program can become an organization's most powerful talent development tool But fixing a broken mentoring program or developing a new program from scratch requires a unique process not a standard training methodology Over the course of her career seasoned program development specialist Jenn Labin has encountered dozens of mentoring programs unable to stand the test of their organizations natural talent cycles These programs applied a training methodology to a nontraining solution and were ineffective at best and poorly designed at worst What's needed is a solid planning framework developed from hands on experimentation And you'll find it here Mentoring Programs That Work is framed around Labin's AXLES model the first framework devoted to the unique challenges of a sustained learning process This step by step approach will help you navigate the early phases of mentoring program alignment all the way through program launch and measurement Whether your goal is to recruit and retain Millennials or deepen organizational commitment it's time to embrace mentoring as one of the most powerful tools of talent development Mentoring Programs That Work will help your organization succeed by building mentoring programs that connect people and inspire learning transfer

The intercultural city step by step - Practical guide for applying the urban model of intercultural integration Council of Europe, 2014-01-01 Most countries in Europe and indeed around the world are facing the challenges of international migration and integration of minorities It falls primarily upon cities to design and implement policies that foster community cohesion and turn cultural diversity into a factor of development rather than a threat This guide is designed for city leaders and practitioners wishing to learn from the Intercultural Cities pilot project run by the Council of Europe and the European Commission in developing an intercultural approach to diversity management and integration This approach has been built on the basis of experience in dozens of real life cities in redesigning their policies and reshaping their governance to ensure equal opportunities and realise a diversity advantage The guide recommends steps and measures to help develop an intercultural strategy and monitor its implementation It illustrates the elements of such a strategy with analytical questions suggestions and examples of practice in various European cities It is expected that any city embarking on the Intercultural Cities agenda is a confident and competent entity that is able to creatively adapt the general concepts and actions contained in this guide to local circumstances This guide is therefore not an instruction manual but rather an aide memoire to support cities as they create their own trajectory
