Chatting message boxes strangers in the night even though she fought it at first it proved to be more interesting than the quiet life she was experiencing at home alone while her two teenagers were out. She met people she talked laughed and cried all in the comfort of her living room. One day she met Ray Knight or Maineman as he was known in the room. She got to know him differently than any other relationship she had ever had. They weren't looking for romance they were true friends. What started out as fun and simple ended up with her on a roller coaster ride she couldn't get off. Ray lived in Portland Maine and wanted a divorce. The only thing was his wife didn't know about it. The complication of a long distance relationship added more stress and happiness than he had ever known.
