Quran Who wrote it and when Can we trust its statements to be from Muhammad Why was it written in Arabic Does it command Muslims to fight Christians These are a few of the thirty questions answered in this clear and concise guide to the history and contents of the Quran Ayman Ibrahim grew up in the Muslim world and has spent many years teaching various courses on Islam Using a question and answer format Ibrahim covers critical questions about the most sacred book for Muslims He examines Muslim and non Muslim views concerning the Quran shows how the Quran is used in contemporary expressions of Islam answers many of the key questions non Muslims have about the Quran and Islam and reveals the importance of understanding the Quran for Christian Muslim and Jewish Muslim interfaith relations This introductory guide is written for anyone with little to no knowledge of Islam who wants to learn about Muslims their beliefs and their scripture

The Ashgate Research Companion to Anthropology Andrew J. Strathern, 2016-03-03 This companion provides an indispensable overview of contemporary and classical issues in social and cultural anthropology Although anthropology has expanded greatly over time in terms of the diversity of topics in which its practitioners engage many of the broad themes and topics at the heart of anthropological thought remain perennially vital such as understanding order and change diversity and continuity and conflict and co operation in the reproduction of social life Bringing together leading scholars in the field the contributors to this volume provide us with thoughtful and fruitful ways of thinking about a number of contemporary and long standing arenas of work where both established and more recent researchers are engaged The companion begins by exploring classic topics such as Religion Rituals Language and Culture Violence and Gender This is followed by a focus on current developments within the discipline including Human Rights Globalization and Diasporas and Cosmopolitanism It provides an interesting and challenging look at the state of current thinking in anthropology serving as a rich resource for scholars and students alike

At the Feet of Abraham Levi UC Nkwwocha, 2020-11-30 This book advances an Abrahamic asymmetric mutual substitutive model of hospitality as a practical approach to establish peaceful coexistence between Muslims and Christians The merits include its helpful survey of the four models of interfaith dialogue and its clear exposition of the dialogue of life its constructive use of the philosophy of Levinas particularly in supporting its vision of asymmetrical moral responsibility among Muslim and Christians and its familiarity with an extensive philosophical literature on alterity gift exchange and responsibility The research also demonstrates strong command of the relevant Christian and Muslim scriptures and Catholic teaching on interfaith relations in addition to a wide range of background material on African Ubuntu spirit visible in Nigerian sociocultural and religious interdependent relations Through a consistent engagement of these philosophical ethical and cultural dimensions the Abrahamic theology of hospitality is ingeniously crafted to fill the age old gap mutual inability to deal with religious otherness At once the book provokes further scholarship inquiries on and around the identified concerns Its commonness and concreteness with the proposed respect for each other's faith commitment further underscores its quality

Geography, Religion, Gods, and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean Erica

Ferg,2020-01-16 Geography Religion Gods and Saints in the Eastern Mediterranean explores the influence of geography on religion and highlights a largely unknown story of religious history in the Eastern Mediterranean In the Levant agricultural communities of Jews Christians and Muslims jointly venerated and largely shared three important saints or holy figures Jewish Elijah Christian St George and Muslim al Khi r These figures share peculiar characteristics such as associations with rain greenness fertility and storms Only in the Eastern Mediterranean are Elijah St George and al Khi r shared between religious communities or characterized by these same agricultural attributes attributes that also were shared by regional religious figures from earlier time periods such as the ancient Near Eastern Storm god Baal Hadad and Levantine Zeus This book tells the story of how that came to be and suggests that the figures share specific characteristics over a very long period of time because these motifs were shaped by the geography of the region Ultimately this book suggests that regional geography has influenced regional religion that Judaism Christianity and Islam are not historically or textually speaking separate religious traditions even if Jews Christians and Muslims are members of distinct religious communities and that shared religious practices between members of these and other local religious communities are not unusual Instead shared practices arose out of a common geographical environment and an interconnected religious heritage and are a natural historical feature of religion in the Eastern Mediterranean This volume will be of interest to students of ancient Near Eastern religions Judaism Christianity Islam sainthood agricultural communities in the ancient Near East Middle Eastern religious and cultural history and the relationships between geography and religion

The Unthought in Contemporary Islamic Thought Mohammed Arkoun,2002 Mohammed Arkoun is one of the Muslim world's foremost thinkers His efforts to liberate Islamic history from dogmatic constructs have led him to a radical review of traditional history Drawing on a combination of pertinent disciplines history sociology psychology and anthropology his approach subjects every system of belief and non belief every tradition of exegesis theology and jurisprudence to a critique aimed at liberating reason from the grip of dogmatic postulates By treating Islam as a religion as well as a time honoured tradition of thought Arkoun's work aims at overcoming the limitations of descriptive narrative and chronological modes in history by recommending that the entire development of Islamic thought from Quranic to present day fundamentalist discourses be subjected to a critical analysis guided by these categories The expected outcome of such a strategy is an emancipated political reason working hand in hand with a truly creative imagination for a radical re construction of mind and society in the contemporary Muslim world
