The Guide To Yellowstone Waterfalls And Their Discovery:

The Guide to Yellowstone Waterfalls and Their Discovery Paul Rubinstein, Lee H. Whittlesey, Mike Stevens, 2000 Join three Yellowstone National Park experts in their remarkable discovery of the park's 200 plus new waterfalls most of which the American public and even Yellowstone park rangers have never before witnessed These trailblazers are the first to document the existence of these spectacular natural features at least 25 of which tower to heights of 100 feet or more and the authors do so through striking photographs engaging text and detailed maps The book also features the park's 50 known waterfalls and reveals the untold stories surrounding many of them For nature lovers adventure seekers and Yellowstone aficionados alike Yellowstone The Discovery of its Waterfalls is a landmark work combining natural and human histories with unbelievably rare geographical discoveries

National Parks, 2001-05 The flagship publication of the National Parks Conservation Association National Parks Magazine circ 340 000 fosters an appreciation of the natural and historic treasures found in the national parks educates readers about the need to preserve those resources and illustrates how member contributions drive our organization's park protection efforts National Parks Magazine uses images and language to convey our country's history and natural landscapes from Acadia to Zion from Denali to the Everglades and the 387 other park units in between

The Art of Stereography Douglas Heil, 2017-02-02 Three dimensional stereoviews were wildly popular in the mid 19th century Yet public infatuation fueled highbrow scorn and even when they fell from favor critics retained their disdain Thus a dazzling body of photographic work has unjustly been buried This book explores how compelling images were made by carefully combining subject matter composition lighting tonality blocking and depth It draws upon the fine arts the mass media humanities history and even geology Throughout overlooked photographers are celebrated such as the one who found extraordinary visual parallels within nature anticipating Cezanne and Seurat or the one who refused to play favorites during a bitter war and found humanity on both sides or the one who took a favorite American glen and found menace all about Stereographers were actually more like film directors or television producers than large format photographers the best ones fused artistry with commercial appeal

James Prosek James Prosek, 2020-07-07 Works by Prosek and others are juxtaposed with natural objects in an illuminating interrogation of the artificial boundaries we create between art and nature Award winning artist writer and naturalist James Prosek b 1975 has gained a worldwide following for his deep connection with the natural world which serves as the basis for his art and numerous popular books In this cross disciplinary catalogue Prosek poses the question What is art and what is artifact and to what extent do these distinctions matter Drawing on the collections of the Yale University Art Gallery and the Yale Peabody Museum of Natural History Prosek places man and nature made objects on equal footing aesthetically suggesting that the distinction between them is not as vast as we may believe In more than 150 full color plates objects such as a bird s nest dinosaur head and cuneiform tablet are juxtaposed with Asian handscrolls an African headdress modern masterpieces and more Artists featured include Albrecht Durer Helen Frankenthaler Vincent van Gogh Barbara Hepworth Pablo Picasso and Jackson Pollack as well as Prosek himself whose works depict fish birds and endangered wildlife Also included are an incisive essay by Edith Devaney and texts by Prosek that explore the magnificent productions of our wondrous interconnected world The New Age of Adventure John Rasmus,2009-09-15 National Geographic Adventure has published the best work by today s finest writers and this tenth anniversary anthology assembles an elite corps of authors that includes Sebastian Junger Peter Matthiessen Philip Caputo and two dozen others These reporters have voyaged to the ends of the earth to bring back the decade s most thrilling eccentric and extraordinary tales But the pieces collected here do more than paint a portrait of the world s most extreme and fascinating environments they also explore important questions about adventure in the 21st century These stories rocket readers across the roof of the world on the new high speed railway in Tibet describe the tension between Indian farmers and the sacred elephants besieging their villages and introduce them to a shaman whom some believe can cure the most serious depressions We meet the great Afghan warlord Ahmed Shah Massoud said to have been the finest guerrilla fighter since Ho Chi Minh encounter a yeti with legendary mountaineer Reinhold Messner and much more This is a wide ranging collection for every road warrior and adventurer armchair or otherwise culled from the much acclaimed journal that in its first ten years has won millions of devoted readers and garnered more than a dozen prestigious prizes for excellence in journalism
