We Shall Not Be Moved M. J. O'Brien,2013-03-01 Winner of the 2014 Lillian Smith Book Award Once in a great while a photograph captures the essence of an era Three people one black and two white demonstrate for equality at a lunch counter while a horde of cigarette smoking hotshots pour catsup sugar and other condiments on the protesters heads and down their backs The image strikes a chord for all who lived through those turbulent times of a changing America The photograph which plays a central role in the book's perspectives from frontline participants caught a moment when the raw virulence of racism crashed against the defiance of visionaries It now shows up regularly in books magazines videos and museums that endeavor to explain America's largely nonviolent civil rights battles of the late 1950s and early 1960s Yet for all of the photograph's celebrated qualities the people in it and the events they inspired have only been sketched in civil rights histories It is not well known for instance that it was this event that sparked to life the civil rights movement in Jackson Mississippi in 1963 Sadly this same sit in and the protest events it inspired led to the assassination of Medgar Evers who was leading the charge in Jackson for the NAACP We Shall Not Be

Moved puts the Jackson Woolworth sit in into historical context Part multifaceted biography part well researched history this gripping narrative explores the hearts and minds of those participating in this harrowing sit in experience It was a demonstration without precedent in Mississippi one that set the stage for much that would follow in the changing dynamics of the state s racial politics particularly in its capital city
