Moody,2016-05-02 The Ten Commandments are the only words that God wrote to man with His own hand In fact He wrote them out twice and even spoke them aloud in the hearing of Israel D L Moody was one of the most effective evangelists of the nineteenth century With no official ordination and little formal education Moody recognized the importance of making Christian doctrine simple and understandable by the common man Thus he set about writing inexpensive Christian books that would reach lost souls In The Ten Commandments Moody devotes a separate chapter to each commandment with a concluding summary His fervent belief was that the commandments are still God s measure of obedience today But they are more than a measuring stick they are a signpost pointing fallen mankind toward the only One who was able to keep God s law Moody s teachings are still relevant to this day His words still resonate just as they did in his large evangelical meetings where thousands of converts fell to their knees He reminds us that Jesus came not to abolish the law but to fulfill it and to become righteousness for all who believe

L. Moody, 2019-04-04 It is related of a clever infidel that he sought an acquaintance with the truths of the Bible and began to read at the books of Moses He had been in the habit of sneering at the Bible and in order to be able to refute arguments brought by Christian men he made up his mind as he knew nothing about it to read the Bible and get some idea of its contents After he had reached the Ten Commandments he said to a friend I will tell you what I used to think I supposed that Moses was the leader of a horde of banditti that having a strong mind he acquired great influence over a superstitious people and that on Mount Sinai he played off some sort of fireworks to the amazement of his ignorant followers who imagined in their fear and superstition that the exhibition was supernatural I have been looking into the nature of that law I have been trying to see whether I could add anything to it or take anything from it so as to make it better Sir I cannot It is perfect The first commandment directs us to make the Creator the object of our supreme love and reverence That is right If He be our Creator Preserver and Supreme Benefactor we ought to treat Him and none other as such The second forbids idolatry That certainly is right The third forbids profanity The fourth fixes a time for religious worship If there be a God He ought surely to be worshipped It is suitable that there should be an outward homage significant of our inward regard If God be worshipped it is proper that some time should be set apart for that purpose when all may worship Him harmoniously and without interruption One day in seven is certainly not too much and I do not know that it is too little The fifth commandment defines the peculiar duties arising from family relations Injuries to our neighbor are then classified by the moral law They are divided into offences against life chastity property and character and I notice that the greatest offence in each class is expressly forbidden Thus the greatest injury to life is murder to chastity adultery to property theft to character perjury Now the greatest offence must include the least of the same kind Murder must include every injury to life adultery every injury to purity and so of the rest And the moral code is closed and perfected by a command forbidding every improper desire in regard to our neighbors I have been thinking Where did Moses get that law I have read history The Egyptians and the adjacent nations were idolaters so were the Greeks and Romans and the wisest or best Greeks or Romans never gave a code of morals like this Where did Moses obtain that law which surpasses the wisdom and philosophy of the most enlightened ages He lived at a period comparatively barbarous but he has given a law in which the learning and sagacity of all subsequent time can detect no flaw Where did he obtain it He could not have soared so far above his age as to have devised it himself I am satisfied where he obtained it It came down from heaven It has convinced me of the truth of the religion of the Bible The infidel now an infidel no longer remained to his death a firm believer in the truth of Christianity We call it the Mosaic Law but it has been well said that the commandments did not originate with Moses nor were they done away with when the

Mosaic Law was fulfilled in Christ and many of its ceremonies and regulations abolished We can find no trace of the existence of any lawmaking body in those early times no parliament or congress that built up a system of laws It has come down to us complete and finished and the only satisfactory account is that which tells us that God Himself wrote the commandments on tables of stone Weighed and Wanting Dwight Moody,2015-02-11 Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above or that is in the earth beneath or that is in the water under the earth thou shalt not bow down thyself to them nor serve them for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me and shewing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me and keep My commandments The Ten Commandments Henry Sloane Coffin,1915

The Ten Commandments ,1830 Weighed and Wanting, Or, Tested by the Ten Commandments Dwight Lyman Moody,2008-01-01 If it were known that God Himself were going to speak once again to man what eagerness and excitement there would be How eagerly all men would listen if God should speak once more Yet men forget that the Bible is God s own Word and that it is as truly His message today as when it was delivered of old The law that was given at Sinai has lost none of its solemnity Time cannot wear out its authority or the fact of its authorship Some people have their own balances A great many are making balances to be weighed in But after all we must be weighed in God s balances the balances of the sanctuary It is a favorite thing with infidels to set their own standard to measure themselves by other people But that will not do in the Day of Judgment Now we will use God s law as a balance weight When men find fault with the lives of professing Christians it is a tribute to the law of God Dwight L Moody The Ten Commandments Roderick C.
