

Graduation Welcome Speech – June 2010

It is my pleasure to welcome families, friends, teachers, and our younger students to graduation day at Wilmington Montessori School.

Earlier this morning, I spoke to you and your families at breakfast. Now, I speak to you as the graduates. I don't know if you all have noticed, but there has been an air of excitement in the halls of Wilmington Montessori for the past week – an excitement that began to peak yesterday when your posters went up in the lobby, graduation practice began, we had our last all school assembly and we all began to listen to Kelly practicing the music for today in the gym. There is excitement in the air and it is all about each of you. This entire school community – your teachers, your parents, grandparents, Aunts and Uncles, and brothers and sisters are so very proud of you today.

I would like to thank each of you for all you have brought to WMS during your time here, many of you since you were only a year or so old. You have brought energy to the school with the

to holiday and giving us an insider's view of the world famous Edinburgh Military Tattoo. There's never a dull moment in the Kerr household. Collegian, 1913. School Administrator's Public Speaking Portfolio. P. Susan Mamchak, Steven R. Mamchak, 1983. Over 150 speeches for the professional educator to use as is or to adapt to the occasion. Tell Us No Secrets. Siena Sterling, 2022-06-07. This stunning debut thriller set in a girls boarding school will leave you breathless until the final page is turned. Sometimes girls are the meanest of them all. Female friendship is intense and that intensity can erupt into dangerous passions when teenage girls are cooped up in an exclusive East Coast boarding school. Beautiful streetwise Cassidy Thomas, debutante jock Abby Madison, academic sensitive Karen Mullens and sophisticated troublemaking Zoey Spalding are four seventeen year olds who should be cruising happily through their Senior Year. But jealousies are simmering. And when Zoey plays a game with the class list if you lose your virginity you get a star beside your name it sets in motion a chain of shocking events. Nine months later when one of the girls is murdered the others must ask themselves if they can carry the truth of what happened the rest of their lives. Tell Us No Secrets describes the bonds between these adolescent girls as well as the terrible pain of betrayal and the tragic consequences of peer pressure running riot at a time when the seismic shift of the Sixties changed the rules for everyone. Another Planet. Elinor Burkett, 2002-08-20. With a novelist's eye Elinor Burkett takes readers behind the school system's closed doors revealing a world of mixed messages, manufactured myths and political hype. In the wake of school shootings across the country one question haunted America: What is going wrong inside our nation's schools? To find out award winning journalist Elinor Burkett spent nine months from the opening pep rally to graduation day in a suburban Minneapolis high school. She attended classes, hung out with students, listened to parents and joined teachers on the front lines. She soon discovered that post Columbine fears about loners and misfits Smoker's New Year a pot holiday Zero Tolerance policies and school lockdowns have become as much a part of a teen's high school experience as dating and Clearasil. But Burkett goes even deeper and makes some startling conclusions in this poignant exposé of the real problems facing educators, parents and the children they try to teach. Norfolk and Western Magazine, 1952. Journal of the National Education Association, 1953. Messenger and Visitor, 1913. My Triumph over Prejudice. Martha Wyatt-Rossignol, 2016-04-06. My Triumph over Prejudice is the autobiography of a black girl growing up in Mississippi during the civil rights era. Born in 1949 Martha Wyatt Rossignol came of age during some of the most crucial and dangerous years of the civil rights movement. She examines those years and what happened when the movement upended her small town of Fayette. She describes the conditions under which blacks lived during segregation and how those oppressive rules changed despite massive resistance from whites. Wyatt Rossignol faced racial hatred when she was chosen for an early school desegregation program. Her failed marriage to an African American led to her dating and later wedding a white man a civil rights worker from the North to whom she is still married. That union sparked disapproval from both the white and black communities revealing entrenched complexities of race and racism in her hometown. Her story also follows the politics of that volatile era in a local context Black politicians helped by national civil rights figures assumed more power and began improving life for all races in this rural area Then came a betrayal felt by many blacks as these key figures overreached their authority and started pursuing their own selfish agendas An intimate revealing portrait of Charles Evers the first black mayor of Fayette and brother of Medgar Evers is included in this section The memoir goes on to portray how the author learned to hate whites as a result of her experiences and how she later overcame that animosity Wyatt Rossignol s story concludes with her move out of Mississippi to the island of Bermuda where she encountered a very different racial environment China's Millions ,1906 The Standard ,1903 NEA Journal National Education Association of the United States,1953
