The End Of Argument Structure Brill R 12:

Exploring Latin: Structures, Functions, Meaning Lucie Pultrová, Martina Vaníková, 2024-11-18 This two volume work contains a selection of papers first presented at the 22nd International Colloquium on Latin Linguistics held in Prague 2023. The papers address important issues in Latin linguistics with a variety of theoretical and methodological approaches. The first volume Word contains texts concerning Latin phonology, etymology, flexion and derivation and lexical semantics both with respect to individual words and to entire word classes. Both diachronic and synchronic perspectives are employed in the discussion of the various issues. The second volume Clause and Discourse includes papers dealing with issues of syntax and semantics and with the structure of texts and pragmatic aspects. One of the subchapters entitled Conversation and Dialogue contains papers presented at the conference in a separate workshop of the same name linked by a common methodological framework of Conversation Analysis. This book provides essential texts for researchers in the field of Latin linguistics and may also be of use to linguists who work primarily with other languages.

A Life in Linguistics Gabriela Alboiu, Daniela Isac, Alexandru Nicolae, 2022-01-01 Alexandra Cornilescu is an internationally renowned linguist whose pioneering ideas have been influential in developing generative grammar in Romania, Europe and beyond. The weightiness of her contributions to the field is matched only by her talent for disseminating them. Ever since 1970 when she started teaching at the University of Bucharest, she has continuously played a tireless and inspirational role in the creation of several generations of linguists, which the academic world has come to admiringly refer to as The Bucharest School. As the initiator of the AICED conference held annually in the English Department at the University of Bucharest, she has turned it into one of the leading platforms of generative linguistics in Europe. She has published extensively on Romanian and English linguistics and is also the founder and past editor of the journal Bucharest Working Papers in Linguistics. On the occasion of her 75th birthday, her friends, students and colleagues celebrate Alexandra Cornilescu's work with this collection of essays on various topics of current theoretical interest.

The Enspirited Body in 1 Corinthians 15 John Granger Cook ,2025-01-24 The precise nature of the the enspirited body remains a mystery It is possible that Paul derived the expression from a lost source in Alexandrian Judaism perhaps based on a transformation of the exegesis of the Genesis creation tradition but it seems most probable that the origin of the concept was his self described experience of the Risen Lord does not appear in any text datable prior to 1 Corinthians However John Granger Cook shows that 1 Cor 15 35 58 and 2 Cor 5 1 10 do provide some guidelines for understanding Paul's concept of the enspirited body and enable the reader to make useful conclusions about what a is and what it is not The context of enspirited body indicates the following result the claim occasionally seen in modern scholarship that the enspirited body in Paul is entirely non physical is unwarranted

Old Testament Quotations in the Fourth Gospel M. J. J. Menken,1996 From the very beginning of Christianity Jesus followers have tried to legitimize their views of him with the help of the Scriptures This means that if we wish to understand the beginning of the Christian church and of Christian theology we have to examine the early Christian use of the Old Testament A conspicuous way of using the Scriptures consists in directly quoting from them Eleven OT quotations in the Fourth Gospel are the topic of this study These eleven quotations in fact the majority of John's OT quotations differ from the known versions of the OT but are not free paraphrases of the OT text in some cases it is not immediately clear from which passage precisely the evangelist quotes This state of affairs raises the questions which OT passages in which versions John used and how and why the quotations were modified In this study the questions of source and of redaction are dealt with in their interrelationship Can we adequately explain the form of a quotation by taking into account Johannine redaction of an OT passage in a textual form which we know which we can reasonably argue Results of research in the field of early Jewish and early Christian exegetical techniques and devices are of course taken into account Each of the eleven quotations is scrutinized on the points of source and redaction It appears that John mostly used the LXX but that where that translation did not suit his purposes he either translated the Hebrew himself or used an other translation He modified the quotations in agreement with extant exegetical rules and for christological reasons This study gives new insight into an aspect of the early Christian use of Scripture

Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts Mike Edwards, Dimos Spatharas, 2019-08-01 Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts breaks new ground by exploring different aspects of forensic storytelling in Athenian legal speeches and the ways in which forensic narratives reflect normative concerns and legal issues The chapters written by distinguished experts in Athenian oratory and society explore the importance of narratives for the arguments of relatively underdiscussed orators such as Isaeus and Apollodorus They employ new methods to investigate issues such as speeches deceptiveness or the appraisals which constitute the emotion scripts that speakers put together This volume not only addresses a gap in the field of Athenian oratory but also encourages comparative approaches to forensic narratives and fiction and fresh investigations of the implications of forensic storytelling for other literary genres Forensic Narratives in Athenian Courts will be an invaluable resource to students and researchers of Athenian oratory and their legal system as well as those working on Greek society and literature more broadly

Danove, 2001 Danove develops a method for analysing syntactic semantic and lexical features of Greek verbs and prepositions in Mark providing a lexicon and parsing guide for the gospel In the first part of this study of the Greek of Mark's gospel Danove develops a method for analyzing the syntactic semantic and lexical attributes of Greek verbs and prepositions He also usefully formulates the results of these analyses as entries for a Lexicon and Parsing Guide for Mark The ensuing exegetical studies address a wide range of questions textual critical questions disputed points of punctuation translation of groups of verbs with particular syntactic and semantic properties and how the method can assist in studying the characterization of God
