The Global Industrial Complex Systems Of Domination:

The Global Industrial Complex Steven Best, Richard Kahn, Anthony J. Nocella II, Peter McLaren, 2011-09-16 The Global Industrial Complex Systems of Domination is a groundbreaking collection of essays by a diverse set of leading scholars who examine the entangled and evolving global array of corporate state structures of hegemonic power what the editors refer to as the power complex that was first analyzed by C Wright Mills in his 1956 classic work The Power Elite In this new volume edited by Steven Best Richard Kahn Anthony J Nocella II and Peter McLaren the power complex is conceived as co constituted interdependent and imbricated systems of domination Spreading insidiously on a global level the transnational institutional relationships of the power complex combine the logics of capitalist exploitation and profits and industrialist norms of efficiency control and mass production While some have begun to analyze these institutional complexes as separate entities this book is unique in analyzing them as overlapping mutually enforcing systems that operate globally and which will undoubtedly frame the macro narrative of the 21st century and perhaps beyond The global industrial complex a grand power complex of complexes thus poses one of the most formidable challenges to the sustainability of planetary democracy freedom and peace today But there can be no serious talk of opposition to it until it is more popularly named and understood The Global Industrial Complex aims to be a foundational contribution to this emerging educational and political project in his 1956 classic work The Power Elite In this new volume edited by Steven Best Richard Kahn Anthony J Nocella II and Peter McLaren the power complex is conceived as co constituted interdependent and imbricated systems of domination Spreading insidiously on a global level the transnational institutional relationships of the power complex combine the logics of capitalist exploitation and profits and industrialist norms of efficiency control and mass production While some have begun to analyze these institutional complexes as separate entities this book is unique in analyzing them as overlapping mutually enforcing systems that operate globally and which will undoubtedly frame the macro narrative of the 21st century and perhaps beyond The global industrial complex a grand power complex of complexes thus poses one of the most formidable challenges to the sustainability of planetary democracy freedom and peace today But there can be no serious talk of opposition to it until it is more popularly named and understood The Global Industrial Complex aims to be a foundational contribution to this emerging educational and political project Stirring Up Liberation Theologies Jione Havea, 2024-07-31 In this critical time in world history when many spirits and bodies are plagued by AIDS covid monkeypox hunger bird flu mad cow disease and other ailments and many communities are broken by wars juntas climate crises domestic abuse poverty and other shitstems this book stirs up the ends of Liberation Theology release As long as the world is plagued and broken the release that Liberation Theology seeks are needed Bringing together a diverse and global array of theologians who have taken up the liberative mantel this book will demonstrate why liberation theology today needs releasing from its illusions and assumptions and what comes next once it does so With contributors including Miguel A De La Torre Anna Kasafi Perkins and Michael Jaggesar the book demonstrates that Liberation Theology is not pass or dead But it needs some stirring up

Twentieth Century Forcible Child Transfers Ruth Amir, 2018-11-27 The current surge of displaced and trafficked children child soldiers and child refugees rekindles the virtually dead letter of the Genocide Convention prohibition on transferring children of one group to another This book focuses on the gap between genocide as a legal term and genocidal forcible child transfer as a catastrophic experience that disrupts a group s continuity It probes the Genocide Convention s boundaries and draws attention to the diverse yet highly similar patterns of forcible child transfers cases such as colonial genocide in the US Canada and Australia Jewish Yemeni immigrants in Israel children of Republican parents during the Spanish Civil War and its aftermath and Operation Peter Pan in Cuba The analysis highlights the consequences of the under inclusive protection granted only to four groups Ruth Amir argues effectively for the need to add an Amending Protocol to the Genocide Convention to protect from forcible transfer to children of any identifiable group of persons perpetrated with the intent to destroy the group as such This proposed provision together with Communications and Rapid Inquiry Procedures will highlight the gravity of forcible child transfers and contribute to the prevention and punishment of genocide Values, Identity, and Sustainable Development in Africa Ezra Chitando, Eunice Kamaara, 2022-11-04 This book contends that Africa s sustainable development must be built on African identity and values Contributors reflect of the role of values in Africa s effort to overcome poverty the focus of SDG 1 The volume reflects on how indigenous values such as Ubuntu constitute a critical resource in addressing poverty It reiterates the importance of positioning the response to poverty in Africa on the continent's own home grown values Contributors also interrogate how values such as integrity hard work tolerance solidarity respect and others serve to position Africa strategically to overcome poverty The volume focuses on how values can help Africa to overcome challenges such as corruption violence intolerance competitive ethnicity xenophobia misplaced priorities and others It provides fresh and critical reflections on the role of values and identity in anchoring Africa's development in the light of SDG 1
