thought which he was about to utter the face of Ernest assumed a grandeur of expression so imbued with benevolence that the poet by an irresistible impulse threw his arms aloft and shouted Behold Behold Ernest is himself the likeness of the Great Stone Face Then all the people looked and saw that what the deep sighted poet said was true The prophecy was fulfilled But Ernest having finished what he had to say took the poet s arm and walked slowly homeward still hoping that some wiser and better man than himself would by and by appear bearing a resemblance to the GREAT STONE FACE Hawthorne likely began writing The Great Stone Face while living at 14 Mall Street in his native town of Salem Massachusetts at the time when he was working at the Salem custom house
