We Who Believe In Freedom:

We Who Believe in Freedom Lea E. Williams, 2017-11-15 The second volume in the True Tales for Young Readers series this short biography of the civil rights leader is intended for middle school and high school readers Ella Baker who grew up in Littleton North Carolina is best remembered for the role she played in facilitating in April 1960 the organizational meeting of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee at Shaw University her alma mater With passion and clear understanding Lea E Williams outlines the life that brought Baker to this crucial point in U S history Ella Baker's

Catalytic Leadership Patricia S. Parker, 2020-11-17 Ella Baker 1903 1986 was an influential African American civil rights and human rights activist For five decades she worked behind the scenes with people in vulnerable communities to catalyze social justice leadership Her steadfast belief in the power of ordinary people to create change continues to inspire social justice activists around the world This book describes a case study that translates Ella Baker's community engagement philosophy into a catalytic leadership praxis which others can adapt for their work Catalytic leadership is a concrete set of communication practices for social justice leadership produced in equitable partnership with instead of on communities The case centers the voices of African American teenage girls who were living in a segregated neighborhood of an affluent college town and became part of a small collective of college students parents university faculty and community activists learning leadership in the spirit of Ella Baker We who Believe in Freedom Bernice Johnson Reagon, 1993 The
