The Handbook of International Trends in Environmental

Communication Bruno Takahashi, Julia Metag, Jagadish Thaker, Suzannah Evans
Comfort, 2021-12-27
This handbook provides a comprehensive review of communication around rising global environmental challenges and public action to manage them now and into the future. Bringing together theoretical, methodological and practical chapters, this book presents a unique opportunity for environmental communication scholars to critically reflect on the past, examine present trends and start envisioning exciting new methodologies, theories and areas of research. Chapters feature authors from a wide range of countries to critically review the genesis and evolution of environmental communication research and thus analyze current issues in the field from a truly international perspective, incorporating diverse epistemological perspectives, exciting new methodologies and interdisciplinary theoretical frameworks. The handbook seeks to challenge existing dominant perspectives of environmental communication from and about populations in the Global South and disenfranchised populations in the Global North. The Handbook of International Trends in Environmental Communication is ideal for scholars and advanced students of communication, sustainability, strategic communication, media, environmental studies and politics.
