This book explores social media influencer marketing through the lens of philosophy of communication with a praxis centered approach. Kati E. Sudnick utilizes a multitude of theoretical touchstones including Christopher Lasch's narcissistic culture Marshall McLuhan's global village Daniel Boorstin's human pseudo event Jacques Ellul's propaganda and the interplay between charismatic leadership and parasocial relationships in order to consider consequences surrounding Hannah Arendt's social condition which appears in hyper form within social media influencer marketing as a major integrated marketing communication tool. Sudnick applies these concepts to three major case studies surrounding Audible BetterHelp and Fyre Festival drawing implications and conclusions for this integrated marketing communication tactic in an era entrenched within the banality of the social.
