Developing Learning Technologies Learning Teaching and Collaboration Experiences On line vs in Class Learning in Pandemic Times    Accentuate the Positive Beth R. Bernhardt, Leah H. Hinds, Katina P. Strauch, 2013 Almost one hundred presentations from the 32nd annual Charleston Library Conference held November 7-10, 2012 are included in this annual proceedings volume. Major themes of the meeting included alternative metrics for measuring impact, patron driven acquisition, Open Access monographs, the future of university presses and techniques for minimizing duplication and emphasizing the unique in library collections. While the Charleston meeting remains a core one for acquisitions librarians in dialog with publishers and vendors, the breadth of coverage of this volume reflects the fact that this conference is now one of the major venues for leaders in the publishing and library communities to shape strategy and prepare for the future. Almost 1,500 delegates attended the 2012 meeting, ranging from the staff of small public library systems to the CEOs of major corporations. This fully indexed, copyedited volume provides a rich source for the latest evidence based research and lessons from practice in a range of information science fields. The contributors are leaders in the library, publishing and vendor communities.

Google Drive Review Introduction

In this digital age, the convenience of accessing information at our fingertips has become a necessity. Whether its research papers, eBooks, or user manuals, PDF files have become the preferred format for sharing and reading documents. However, the cost associated with purchasing PDF files can sometimes be a barrier for many individuals and organizations.
