Now with the rise of digital cinema audiences often encounter movies outside the theater and even outside the home. Traditional distribution models are challenged by new media entrepreneurs and independent film makers. User-generated video, film blogs, mashups, downloads and other expanding networks are reinventing cinema. Reinventing Cinema examines film culture at the turn of this century at the precise moment when digital media are altering our historical relationship with the movies. Spanning multiple disciplines, Chuck Tryon addresses the interaction between production, distribution and reception of films, television and other new and emerging media. Through close readings of trade publications, DVD extras, public lectures by new media leaders, movie blogs and YouTube videos, Tryon navigates the shift to digital cinema and examines how it is altering film and popular culture. The American Gas Light Journal, 1915     Britannica Book of the Year, 2015     Business Week, 2009
