Early Christianity Scholar Professor Hamilton Hess, University of San Francisco writes: A marvelous book. Joseph Eagan has provided us with a masterly exposition of the problems facing the Catholic Church today and of the ecclesial renewal mandated by the Second Vatican Council. Thoroughly researched and clearly expressed for a variety of readers, this book comes at the ideal time of the beginning of new papal leadership. Maureen Bennett, teacher and housewife comments: Catholics saw in the decrees of Vatican II an exciting vision of the future Church. For many that promise remains unfulfilled. Fr Eagan restores our hope for change still to come and illustrates the path to achieving that bright future. Dr Harvey Egan, Boston College states: Clearly written, concisely and with nuance, a great aid for those teaching students or for anyone interested in contemporary Catholicism. The Gift of the Church

Peter C. Phan, 2016-03-24

As the Church enters its third millennium, it must take stock of its identity and mission. These essays in The Gift of the Church address the fundamental issues confronting the Church in its immediate future. Their authors represent the most prominent ecclesiologists of our time. Written in honor of Patrick Granfield OSB, these essays form a textbook for classes in ecclesiology. They also are a useful tool for those engaged in various ministries in the Church to update themselves on the theology of different aspects of the Church. The first section of essays discusses ecclesiology in its historical development as well as its methodology; the second examines various aspects of the Church; and the third part presents the life and work of Patrick Granfield. The essays are clearly written and based on solid and extensive scholarship. Ecclesiology has been the central theme of theological reflections since Vatican II and may continue to be in the next millennium. This textbook fulfills in part Pope John Paul II's Vision for the Jubilee Year when Christians with a profound sense of commitment will likewise express their gratitude for the gift of the Church.
