Sorolla The Masterworks:

Sorolla: The Masterworks Blanca Pons-Sorolla, 2012-10-02 A new survey of the best works by the elusive and spectacular Spanish Impressionist Joaquín Sorolla. Often compared to his contemporary the American artist John Singer Sargent, Joaquín Sorolla (1863-1923) was a master draftsman and painter of landscapes, formal portraits and monumental, historically themed canvases. Highly influenced by French Impressionism, the Valencian artist was a master plein air painter known for his luminous seaside scenes of frolicking youths and for vivid depictions of Spanish rural life and its pleasures and customs. This beautifully designed and produced volume brings together one hundred of Sorolla's major paintings selected by his great granddaughter Blanca Pons-Sorolla, the foremost authority on the artist. Benefiting from close proximity to the artist and his personal archives, she presents an in-depth essay that explores Sorolla's life, work and remarkable international legacy. With virtually all of the artist's previous publications now out of print, this much anticipated volume is an important addition to the literature on this great Spanish master.

Sorolla: Painted Gardens, 2019-04-23 Valencian master Sorolla's Impressionist paintings depict the most beautiful gardens and architecture in Spain. Like Claude Monet's celebrated plein air landscapes at Giverny, the series collected in this book represents among the best loved examples of Joaquín Sorolla's 1863-1923 work and a window into the Spanish painter's quest to capture the essence of a garden. Described by Monet as the master of light, Sorolla and his landscapes, formal portraits and historically themed canvases drew comparisons to contemporary American painter John Singer Sargent. Sorolla had achieved renown on both sides of the Atlantic for grand scenes of Spanish life when he began a personal series of garden works presented completely for the first time in this publication. Painted at the palaces of La Granja and the Alcázar in Seville, the Alhambra and Generalife in Granada and at the painter's home in Madrid, these Impressionist works allowed Sorolla to apply his signature loose brushwork and training as a photographer's lighting assistant to gardens and the sculptures, architecture and fountains that frame and animate them. Sorolla depicted reflections in fountains and pools, the sunlight dappling his glamorous sitters, sprays of orange blossoms and shaded blue and white tile as he endeavored to render the radiant peace of a summer afternoon.

Deaccessioning and Its Discontents Martin Gammon, 2018-11-06 The first history of the deaccession of objects from museum collections that defends deaccession as an essential component of museum practice Museums often stir controversy when they deaccession works formally remove objects from permanent collections with some critics accusing them of betraying civic virtue and the public trust In fact Martin Gammon argues in Deaccessioning and Its Discontents deaccession has been an essential component of the museum experiment for centuries Gammon offers the first critical history of deaccessioning by museums from the seventeenth to the twenty first century and exposes the hyperbolic extremes of deaccession denial the assumption that deaccession is always wrong and deaccession apology when museums justify deaccession by finding some fault in the object as symptoms of the same misunderstanding of the role of deaccessions in proper museum practice He chronicles a series of deaccession events in Britain and the United States that range from the disastrous to the beneficial and proposes a typology of principles to guide future deaccessions Gammon describes the liquidation of the British Royal Collections after Charles I's execution when masterworks were used as barter to pay the king's unpaid bills as establishing a precedent for future deaccessions He recounts among other episodes U S Civil War veterans who tried to reclaim their severed limbs from museum displays the 1972 Hoving affair when the Metropolitan Museum of Art sold a number of works to pay for a Velázquez portrait and Brandeis University's decision later reversed to close its Rose Art Museum and sell its entire collection of contemporary art

An appendix provides the first extensive listing of notable deaccessions since the seventeenth century Gammon ultimately argues that vibrant museums must evolve embracing change loss and reinvention
