Using Documents In Social Research Introducing Qualitative Methods Series:

Gender and Qualitative Methods Helmi Järvinluoma, Pirkko Moisala, Anni Vilkko, 2003-10-21 Gender and Qualitative Methods outlines the practical and philosophical issues of gender in qualitative research. Taking a social constructionist approach to gender the authors emphasize that the task of the researcher is to investigate how gender is defined, negotiated and performed by people themselves within specific situations and locations. Each chapter begins with an introduction to a specific method and/or research subject and then goes on to discuss gender as an analytical category in relation to it. Areas covered include field work, life story, membership, categorisation, analysis and analysis of gender in sound and vision. Written in a clear and accessible way each chapter contains practical exercises that will teach the student methods to observe and analyze the effects of gender in various texts and contexts. The book is also packed with examples taken from women and men's studies as well as from feminist and other gender studies.

Qualitative Methods for Health Research Judith Green, Nicki Thorogood, 2004-05-25 Using examples from health research projects in a wide range of settings this book introduces public health, health services research, nursing and health promotion professionals and students to the key debates in qualitative methodology issues in designing ethical and feasible projects, the main methods of collecting and analyzing qualitative data and ways of reading and writing qualitative research.

Doing Research in Cultural Studies Paula Saukko, 2003-11-03 Paula Saukko outlines the key methodological approaches to the study of lived experience, texts and social contexts within the field of cultural studies.

Doing Conversation Analysis Paul ten Have, 2007-09-25 This is the book for introducing and getting to grips with conversation analysis. Accessible, comprehensive and very applied, Steven Wright Lancaster University. A clearly written book. It puts CA into perspective by presenting exemplary studies and differentiating CA from other approaches to discourse. It is full of advice concerning the technicalities of recording, transcription and analysis. It will be most useful to my students Spiros Moschonas University of Athens. The Second Edition of Paul ten Have's classic text Doing Conversation Analysis has been substantially revised to bring the book up to date with the many changes that have occurred in conversation analysis over recent years. The book has a dual purpose to introduce the reader to conversation analysis CA as a specific research approach in the human sciences and to provide students and novice researchers with methodological and practical suggestions for actually doing CA research. The first part of the book sets out the core theoretical concepts that underpin CA and relates these to other approaches to qualitative analysis. The second and third parts detail the specifics of CA in its production of data recordings and transcripts and its analytic strategies. The final part discusses ways in which CA can be applied in the study of specific institutional settings and for practical or critical purposes.

Modelling Accelerated Proficiency in Organisations Dr Raman K Attri, 2022-05-31 This book presents a research thesis of a large scale study conducted with over 50 large organizations in 7 countries with 80 business leaders to understand how businesses speed up the proficiency of their employees to meet business challenges. The book describes a start to end research study that explored the concept of accelerated proficiency of employees in organizations. The book is organized into five chapters. The book introduces the concept of accelerated proficiency in a business context in light of reviews of four decades of classic studies. The research methodology to identify sources, recruit participants and the mechanism to collect as well as analyze data have been explained in detail. The book reveals six business practices implemented by organizations across the board that seem to make a major impact in shortening the time to proficiency of employees. Important observations and findings have been discussed as implications in regards to how organizations orchestrated six business practices as an input output feedback system to reduce the time to proficiency of the workforce. The book briefly explains how these six practices were implemented through a set of twenty four strategies in various contexts. The concepts and findings discussed in this book contribute significantly to the body of knowledge on accelerated proficiency. In particular the conceptual model and the framework developed in this study can be implemented across a range of contexts business sectors, job types and settings to reduce the time to proficiency of the workforce.

Resources for Nursing Research Cynthia Clamp, Stephen Gough, Lucy Land, 2005-01-11. The 4th edition of this extensive text is an outstanding resource prepared by nurses and a librarian for nurses. In a structured and helpful style it presents thousands of items from the literature published papers, reports, books and electronic resources as a clear, accessible and most of all useful collection. The efforts to signpost and lead the reader to the sought for information are effective and well conceived and the 'How to use this book' section is remarkably simple. The book should be found in every nursing and health library, every research institute and centre and close to many career researchers' desks. RCN Research. This latest edition of Resources for Nursing Research provides a comprehensive bibliography of sources on nursing research and includes references for books, journal papers and Internet resources. Designed to act as a signpost to available literature in the area, this Fourth Edition covers the disciplines of nursing, health care and the social sciences. Entries are concise, informative and accessible and are arranged under three main sections. 'Sources of Literature' covers the process of literature searching including using libraries and other tools for accessing literature. 'Methods of Inquiry' includes an introduction to research, how to conceptualize and design nursing and health research, measurement and data collection and the interpretation and presentation of data. 'The Background to Research in Nursing' encompasses the development of nursing research, the profession's responsibilities, the role of government funding, research roles and careers and education for research. Fully revised and updated, the Fourth Edition includes just under 3000 entries of which 90% are new. It has extensive coverage of US, UK literature and other international resources. This new edition will be an essential guide for all those with an interest in nursing research, including students, teachers, librarians, practitioners and researchers.

Qualitative Research Design for Software Users Silvana di Gregorio, Judith Davidson, 2008-12. Di Gregorio, the second part uses case studies to demonstrate the issues and the design framework introduced in the first part. These chapters are supported by numerous screenshots illustrating the software under discussion. The last part contains practical appendices to help readers apply the framework introduced to their own research. Di Gregorio and Davidson introduce The notion of the E Project or electronic project as a genre. A framework for representing the research design of a project in any QDAS package. Ethical considerations when working in QDAS. A variety of contextual issues including national and organizational differences. Eight real research projects of a variety of designs and using different QDAS ATLAS ti, MAXqda, NVIVO and XSight. Separate checklists for ATLAS ti, MAXqda, NVIVO and XSight providing practical help in applying the research design framework presented in the book. Uniquely the book examines issues related to both academic and non academic uses of QDAS. Qualitative Research Design for Software Users is a useful reference for upper level students, academics and researchers across a range of disciplines.
