state of theoretical debates from the perspectives of literary theory philosophy sociology religious studies history and the cognitive sciences It aims to take stock of the real or supposed effects that fiction has on the world and to offer a wide reaching reflection on the implications of belief in fictions in the so called post truth era New Directions in the History of the Novel P. Parrinder,A. Nash,N. Wilson,2014-02-25 New Directions in the History of the Novel challenges received views of literary history and sets out new areas for research A re examination of the nature of prose fiction in English and its study from the Renaissance to the 21st century it will become required reading for teachers and students of the novel and its history Hemispheric Regionalism Gretchen J. Woertendyke,2016-06-02 In this broad ranging study Gretchen Woertendyke reconfigures US literary history as a product of hemispheric relations Hemispheric Regionalism Romance and the Geography of Genre brings together a rich archive of popular culture fugitive slave narratives advertisements political treatises and literature to construct a new literary history from a hemispheric and regional perspective At the center of this history is romance a popular and versatile literary genre uniquely capable of translating the threat posed by the Haitian Revolution or the expansionist possibilities of Cuban annexation for a rapidly increasing readership Through romance she traces imaginary and real circuits of exchange and remaps romance s position in nineteenth century life and letters as irreducible to nor fully mediated by a concept of nation The energies associated with Cuba and Haiti manifest destiny and apocalypse bring historical depth to an otherwise short national history As a result romance becomes remarkably influential in inculcating a sense of new world citizenry The study shifts our critical focus from novel and nation to romance and region inevitable she argues when we attend to the tangled messy relations across geographic and historical boundaries Woertendyke reads the archives of Gabriel Prosser Nat Turner and Denmark Vesey along with less frequently treated writers such as John Howison William Gilmore Simms and J H Ingraham The study provides a new context for understanding works by Washington Irving Edgar Allan Poe Herman Melville and James Fenimore Cooper and brings together the theories of Charles Brockden Brown the editorial work of Maturin M Ballou and the historical romances of Walter Scott In Hemispheric Regionalism Woertendyke demonstrates that US literature has always been the product of hemispheric and regional relations and that all forms of romance are central to this history Wylder's Hand: a novel Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu,1870
