[Company City, State XXXXX]

[(XXX) XXX-XXXX]

[hiring.manager@gmail.com]

Dear [Mr./Mrs./Ms.] [Manager's Name],

This letter is in regard to my interest in applying for the entry-level paralegal position at [Company Name]. With my skills and qualifications, I am more than capable of providing paralegal support services to protect your company's innovations and intellectual property.

While pursuing an Associate Degree in Paralegal Studies from Southern Community College, I have developed knowledge of intellectual property law. As a member of the Junior Paralegal Club, I was able to stay up to date on all current affairs in relation to corporate law. With an internship at a mid-size law firm I was able to apply this knowledge and gain hands-on experience in the field.

During my internship with The Wachester Firm, I was responsible for:

- The preparation of documents for criminal and civil trials by scheduling and conducting interviews with clients, witnesses, and other lawyers
- Creating and maintaining a paper and electronic litigation database
- In-depth research and analysis of cases on corporate governance and litigation

Together, I believe my educational background and internship experience make me a suitable candidate for the paralegal position at your firm. I have attached my resume highlighting my academic and professional skills, and I look forward to hearing from you in due course. I appreciate your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Cover Letter In The Us Tutorial:

A Crash Course In Cover Letters: Adapting An Old School Tool For Your Digital Job Search J. Maureen Henderson, 2012-06-11 Today job seekers need to build active networking based methods into their job searches They have to have a game plan and it s got to be crafty bold and strategic Hiding behind a computer and machine gunning resumes into blind mailboxes over and over again is the recipe for a super long frustrating job search Cover letters we hear are redundant a waste of time for the applicant and the hiring manager no longer useful in the age of online applications and no one knows how to write them anyway This is just plain wrong Done right cover letters provide an additional means by which you make your case for hiring to the employer Far from being job search relics they continue to provide value both to you and to the hiring manager in the application process And yes they are still considered essential documents by a majority of employers As reported by the Washington Post 53% of employers surveyed give the edge to applicants who include cover letters over those who do not and 91% claim that a well written cover letter improved the odds of a less qualified candidate reaching the interview stage A cover letter can truly make or break your application In this book you ll find out Whether to leave that graduate degree off your resume and what you can fake What you never should when describing your skill set How to find a job with social media savvy How to make sure social media isn t working against you How to stand out in the slush pile
