The Sea Siren Edmund B. Papp, 2014-08-04 The Sea Siren is a photo art book telling the incredible true story of an aging underwater photographer Edmund B Papp who discovers a shipwreck in Key West Florida and envisions a beautiful nude model swimming around and inside this wreck. The Sea Siren photo shoot was deemed so dangerous even local photo experts said it could not be done. After 12 years of searching for the perfect model swimmer none could not meet Mr Papp's strict protocols and high performance standards. Depressed Mr Papp shelved The Sea Siren project and moved on. But just as Ed was about to change his occupation from Photographer to Inn Keeper Poseidon the Greek god of the oceans sent him a real Sea Siren. Her name was Nikki du Plessis. To this day Ed is convinced divine intervention was at play because just hours after meeting Nikki du Plessis a stunningly beautiful model from South Africa he JUST KNEW he had found THE ONE. Nikki would become his model for The Sea Siren photo shoot. He was so convinced of this that he disregarded years of past failure and all his common sense protocols. As his friends scratched their heads Mr Papp offered to fly Nikki back to Key West in August for a 30 day underwater shoot. She would become The Sea Siren. That 30 day shoot is now the basis of an upcoming reality show titled of course The Sea Siren.
