Sustainable employment Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2007-11-14 This NAO report examines the subject of sustainable employment and the options available to support people in their efforts to maintain their work and advance in their roles It has been prepared against a background of considerable focus and activity on skills and on employment in particular the Leitch review ISBN 97801108404860 as well as the Department for Work and Pensions In Work Better Off Cm 7130 ISBN 9780101713023 Sustainable employment is at the centre of the Department's work to help low skilled people into work and out of poverty A number of recommendations are set out including that more and better information is needed on how long jobs are sustained and to identify the people most at risk of early exit sustainable employment can be improved by a programme of targets that take account of both job duration and individuals aggregate employment that an ongoing development of economically valuable skills is a key element of sustainable employment along with better integration between employment programmes and programmes for raising skills that the Train to Gain programme needs to achieve a good balance between focusing on hard to reach employers and engaging employers in raising skills

Railway News, Finance and Joint-stock Companies' Journal , 1881 Helping people from workless households into work Great Britain: National Audit Office, 2007-07-19 A workless household is defined as a household that includes at least one person of working age men aged 16-64 years and women aged 16-59 years where no one in the household aged 16 or over is in employment Currently there are about three million households containing 1.7 million children who still have no one in work Evidence suggests that many adults in workless households would like to work but that they face multiple barriers to work such as low skills disability a lack of affordable and flexible childcare or caring responsibilities and may have been on benefits for a long time The NAO report examines the effectiveness of Department for Work and Pensions employment programmes aimed at workless households in England focusing on two programmes the New Deal for Lone Parents and the New Deal for Partners The report finds that these programmes are making a difference for those who take part but more needs to be done to reach out to workless households and to increase awareness of the support available and help people to prepare for and find work     Diplomatic and Consular Reports
