Black Friday

Black Friday Employees and Policies

Black Friday requires all hands on deck for retailers. Stores may hire seasonal staff to meet customer demand. Many employees work late on Thanksgiving making store preparations into the night. Staff may be brought in very early Friday morning before opening. Store managers often provide breakfast or coffee for their overworked teams. To maintain orderly sales, limited quantities of discounted items are permitted. Rules against tenting or line formation may be set. Retailers aim for an energizing yet controlled opening rush. Their staff's hard work helps make the shopping frenzy possible.

1. Why might stores hire extra seasonal workers?

2. What rules might retailers set for shoppers?

3. How do stores prepare staff for the demands?

Under a Black Star Amari Johnson,2025-06-24 Uncovering the spirit of freedom and self determination in New Orleans In Under a Black Star Amari Johnson explores what he defines as the maroon impulse among the BlackStar Community in the Algiers neighborhood of New Orleans This community sought autonomy for Black people facing systemic marginalization through denied employment insufficient education and a housing crisis following Hurricane Katrina establishing initiatives such as Kamali Academy a homeschool collective and BlackStar Books and Caff a bookstore and gathering place Instead of appealing to the city they built the community they desired by employing legacies of marronage disengagement flight and reengagement An active participant in the physical and ideological development of these autonomous spaces Johnson provides nuanced insights into the community's work toward liberation and self
