Untapped Air Force Resources For Stabilization And Reconstruction Operations:

Untapped Air Force Resources for Stabilization and Reconstruction Operations,2006 This thesis reviews the potential contributions of the United States Air Force to stabilization and reconstruction operations Specifically the Air Force s On Scene Commanders Course and Air Force Mission Support Group Commanders are assessed as potential Air Force assets that could be employed in stabilization and reconstruction operations This research will determine the course s ability to satisfy key needs identified in the post conflict literature and if the course would be useful for other U S agencies with responsibilities in post conflict operations Finally the paper asks if Mission Support Group Commanders can provide critical skill sets valuable in stability operations This work will assess the applicability of these Air Force leaders duties for possible use in post conflict operations by reviewing the Air Force s Objective Wing Structure and the duty histories of current and former Mission Support Group Commanders

Report on Progress Toward Security and Stability in Afghanistan

Barry Leonard,2009-09 After the attacks of 9 11 the U S and our international partners toppled the Taliban regime in Afghanistan ending years of brutal misrule and denying al Qaeda a safe haven from which to launch its attacks The U S strategic goals remain that Afghanistan is 1 a reliable stable ally in the War on Terror 2 moderate and democratic with a thriving private sector economy 3 capable of governing its territory and borders and 4 respectful of the rights of all its citizens Achieving these goals requires the application of a whole of government approach along multiple lines of operation including security governance and development This report describes both the progress we are making in achieving our national objectives and the challenges we continue to face
