The Desert John C. Van Dyke,John Charles Van Dyke,1980 In the early summer of 1898 John C Van Dyke an asthmatic forty two year old art historian and critic rode an Indian pony out of the Hemet Valley and headed southeast into the Colorado desert With his dog his guns and few supplies this sickly aesthete wandered mostly alone for nearly three years across the deserts of California Arizona and Mexico He crossed the Salton Sea Basin forded the Colorado below Yuma on a raft he built himself followed the railroad line to Tucson then turned west again toward Sonora His exact route is not known he did not always know where he was himself He sought both health and beauty in the dry country and wrote that the desert never had a sacred poet it has in me only a lover This extraordinary book composed at odd intervals when I lay against a rock or propped up in the sand is a masterpiece of personal philosophy containing precise scientific analyses of diverse phenomena from erosion to sky colors and prescient ruminations on the nature of civilization The desert should never be reclaimed Van Dyke wrote yet he lived long enough to see the reclamation projects in what became the Imperial Valley He did not witness the virtual destruction of the Colorado Desert still ongoing As poet Richard Shelton wonders in his introduction Where are the herds of antelope Van Dyke spoke of and the gray wolves and the pure air
