Ramsey,2013-03-01 MediaWriting is an introductory hands on textbook for students preparing to write in the current multimedia environment Rather than just talk about the differences among the styles of print broadcast and public relations MediaWriting synthesizes and integrates them while weaving in basic principles of Internet writing and social media reporting Complete with real world examples practical writing exercises and tips and information for entering into the profession MediaWriting continues to give students the tools they need to become a successful media writer. The new edition has been extensively rewritten to reflect the dynamic nature of the profession, paying significant attention to how the Internet and social media have become essential communication tools for print and broadcast journalists and public relations professionals. Further updates and features include increased attention to computer-assisted reporting, the preparation of online copy and social media applications. Two new chapters on lead writing and new media. A separate chapter focused solely on ethics. Explanatory how-to boxes that help students understand and retain main themes. Illustrative It Happened to Me vignettes from the authors' professional experiences. Discussion questions and exercises at the end of every chapter. Suggested readings that highlight biographies, books and websites that expand the scope and definition of professionalism. In addition to new multimedia elements, the fourth edition's companion website features enhanced resources for both students and instructors, including chapter overviews, writing tips, a test bank, sample critiques and a sample syllabus.

Clinical Research Methods

in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology, Fourth Edition David L. Irwin, Jeremy J. Donai, 2024-06-26. With a new chapter on evaluating research articles, the fourth edition of Clinical Research Methods in Speech Language Pathology and Audiology continues to be an essential resource for graduate students and clinicians seeking to understand the principles and methodologies involved with clinical research. As the demand for evidence-based practice continues to rise, understanding how to conduct and evaluate research becomes increasingly important in ensuring quality care and professional accountability. This text emphasizes how to effectively apply research to clinical practice and decision-making processes. Readers will also gain knowledge of the significance of research ethics and the ethical considerations involved. With the utilization of discussion materials, this text will facilitate learning and critical thinking among students as they engage with the material. This edition includes information on how to critically review both quantitative and qualitative articles. Current trends and updated examples from speech pathology and audiology literature will assist with real world research situations. New to the Fourth Edition: New co-author Jeremy J. Donai, AuD, PhD, providing a fresh perspective. New chapter on critically evaluating quantitative and qualitative research articles. Examples regarding integration of citations into a literature review. Key Features: Chapters begin with an outline of covered topics and learning objectives. End-of-chapter discussion questions aid students in applying concepts. A comprehensive glossary allows students to easily find and define important terms. Numerous references throughout, including many ASHA and AAA Codes of Ethics.
