The Everychurch Guide to Growth Elmer L. Towns,C. Peter Wagner,Thom S. Rainer,1998-08-01 Shows churches of every size how to revive and expand their ministries breaking through barriers and growing into the future On Keeping My Mouth Shut in Sunday School James Lutzweiler,2020-06-12 This book is simply a written Sunday school lesson rather than the oral variety. The primary topic is war and the relationship of a Christian to it. While someday war shall be studied no more that day has not yet arrived. This book chronicles with specific examples how a few Christians like Rev J J Taylor Alvin York Vernon Grounds Franz J gerst tter and the author himself have approached the topic. Dietrich Bonhoeffer also makes a guest appearance as do Tolstoy Gandhi and MLK. The book does not advocate a pure pacifism. The author has not solved all the problems associated with that viewpoint and does not know anyone who has. But it does argue for peacemaking the likes of which is addressed by Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount and by St Paul who urges us to wrestle with principalities and powers i e ideas and not to wrestle with flesh and blood. This the author has tried to do within these peacemaking pages and the comparative safety of his laptop and life in bucolic and pastoral Jamestown North Carolina Teaching in the Life of the Church Darin R. Clements,2025-04-28 I chose to publish my dissertation for two reasons. First though quite narrow in scope as good qualitative research should be this research makes a modest contribution to the growing scholarship on Christianity in Cambodia. Second this research makes an empirical contribution to the field of nonformal Christian Education from an Asian context in which Christians are a tiny minority. As my literature review indicates the field of nonformal CE is dominated by a North American point of view which ironically is facing a general breakdown of historical CE institutions like Sunday school. While much of the literature is useful in the Majority World it does not take into account the education levels educational contexts and social dynamics of places like Cambodia. For example the findings from my cases indicate that nonformal CE in Cambodia has more in common with the Sunday school movement in the 19th century than with the functions organizational structures and teaching approaches discussed in current literature. As I have presented these ideas in class feedback from students has consistently confirmed that my findings resonate with contexts across Asia Pacific.
