Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion Elizabeth Childs-Johnson, John S Major, 2023-05-30

Metamorphic Imagery in Ancient Chinese Art and Religion demonstrates that the concept of metamorphism was central to ancient Chinese religious belief and practices from at least the late Neolithic period through the Warring States Period of the Zhou dynasty. Central to the author's argument is the ubiquitous motif in early Chinese figurative art: the metamorphic power mask. While the motif underwent stylistic variation over time, its formal properties remained stable, underscoring the image's ongoing religious centrality. It symbolized the metamorphosis through the phenomenon of death of royal personages from living humans to deceased ancestors who required worship and sacrificial offerings. Treated with deference and respect, the royal ancestors lent support to their living descendants; ratifying and upholding their rule, neglected they became dangerous, even malevolent. Employing a multidisciplinary approach that integrates archaeologically recovered objects with literary evidence from oracle bone and bronze inscriptions to canonical texts, all situated in the appropriate historical context, the study presents detailed analyses of form and style and of change over time, observing the importance of relationality and the dynamic between imagery, materials, and affects. This book is a significant publication in the field of early China studies, presenting an integrated conception of ancient art and religion that surpasses any other work now available. A Land With a People Esther Farmer, Rosalind Pollack Petchesky, Sarah Sills, 2021-10-23 A collection of personal stories, history, poetry, and art. A Land With a People is a book of stories, photographs, and poetry which elevates rarely heard Palestinian and Jewish voices and visions. Eloquent, framed with a foreword by the dynamic Palestinian legal scholar and activist Noura Erakat, this book began as a storytelling project of Jewish Voice for Peace New York City and subsequently transformed into a theater project performed throughout the New York City area. Stories touch hearts, open minds, and transform our understanding of the other, as well as our comprehension of our own roles and responsibilities. A Land With a People emerges from this reckoning. It brings us the narratives of secular Muslim, Christian, and queer Palestinians who endure the particular brand of settler colonialism known as Zionism. It relays the transformational journeys of Ashkenazi, Mizrahi, queer, and Palestinian Jews who have come to reject the received Zionist narrative. Unflinching in their confrontation of the power dynamics that underlie their transformation process, these writers find the courage to face what has happened to historic Palestine and to their own families as a result. Contextualized by a detailed historical introduction and timeline charting 150 years of Palestinian and Jewish resistance to Zionism, this collection will stir emotions, provoke fresh thinking, and point to a more hopeful, loving future one in which Palestine/Israel is seen for what it is in its entirety, as well as for what it can be. Sunrise Sunset
