

SUPERHEROES : WHAT MAKES A SUPERHERO ?

A costume, a secret identity, secret weapons, superhuman powers... that's what's makes a superhero. Some of them are able to fly, to jump very high, to see through everything, to change their bodies etc... and they all have very powerful enemies to fight : supervillains. Superheroes all wear costumes. They are usually orphans. They all have a dual identity : they are incredible heroes but in their everyday life, they are usually shy and awkward like Superman/Clark Kent or Spiderman/Peter Parker. They all have a mission : to fight crime and defeat supervillains. Modern superheroes were born in America in the pages of American comics and graphic novels in June 1938 with the first appearance of Superman. Batman appeared one year later, Captain America in 1940, Fantastic Four in 1961, Spider-Man and The Hulk in 1962 and The X-Men in 1963. Americans invented superheroes to represent their hopes and fears for the future. People who believe in superheroes feel stronger and safer. There was also a message sent to the world : America was powerful, just like Captain America and would help the world defeat evil. If you look at Superman and Captain America's costumes, you can see they are very similar to the American flag.

Superman: can run faster than a train, leap over buildings, block bullets with his chest, see through walls, blow very cold air, stop meteors and he can also fly.

Batman fights crimes using martial arts, technology and his mind. He can jump very high.

Thor Thor's principal weapon is the enchanted hammer Mjolnir, one of the most formidable weapons known to man or god. Among the hammer's various enchantments are its indestructibility and the ability to summon all the elements of storm (wind, rain, thunder, and lightning). His hammer can be thrown both as a means of flight, and as a weapon that always returns to its wielder's hand. Thor's superhuman strength is matched with an immunity to all human diseases, superhuman speed, agility, and simulated flight when he hurls his enchanted hammer Mjolnir.

Spiderman was bitten by a radioactive spider and gains the strength of a spider, he can spin huge webs to save children in a cable car for example, he can also sense danger, wallcrawl.

Tony Stark a rich industrialist and engineer playboy suffers a severe chest injury during a kidnapping, he builds an armored suit to escape captivity, he then decides to use his fortune to build weapons to help the S.H.I.E.L.D protect the world and fight against evil. His armor magnifies Stark's strength to superhuman levels, enabling him to lift (press) roughly 85 times. Ironman was born.

Captain America can run a mile(1.6 Km) in one minute, heal faster than normal, his immunity to diseases is extraordinary. Captain America has agility, strength, speed, endurance, and reaction time superior to any Olympic athlete who ever competed. While not superhuman, he is as strong as a human being can be. He can lift (press) a maximum of 800 pounds (400 kilos) with supreme effort. He has his own unique hand-to-hand style of combat.

The Hulk Wolverine possesses heightened senses, making him capable of seeing things at a maximum distance greater than that of a normal human. His hearing is enhanced in a similar manner, and he is able to recognize people and objects by scent, even if that person or object is hidden.

Wolverine has heightened senses, see through walls, is immune to diseases.

Dr. Banner transformed by gamma rays in his laboratory, turns into The Hulk, a giant green monster when he is angry, he is very powerful, he can lift tanks and climb up walls.

The Black Widow is an Olympic class athlete. Her gloves and boots are equipped with miniature suction cups which enable her to cling to surfaces. Her belt contains plastic explosives.

Superevil. Villains in Silver Age Superhero Comics Anke Marie Bock,2023-10-18 Superevil Villains in Silver Age Superhero Comics sheds light on the often disregarded supervillains in the American superhero comic of the 1960s From Loki to Killmonger they all possess famous cinematic counterparts yet it is their comic origin that this study examines Not only did The Silver Age produce countless superheroes and supervillains who have conquered the screens in the last two decades but it also created complex villains Silver Age supervillains were as the analyses in Superevil show the main and only means to include political and societal criticism in a cultural product which suffered from censorship and belittlement Instead of focusing on the superheroes once more Anke Marie Bock pioneers in putting the supervillain as such in the center of the attention In addition to addressing the tendency to neglect villains in superhero comic studies revealing many important functions the supervillains fulfill among them criticizing Cold War politics racism gender roles and the often unquestioned binary of good and evil on the examples of i a The Fantastic Four Spider Man and Black Panther comics

The Meaning of Superhero Comic Books Terrence R. Wandtke,2014-01-10 For decades scholars have been making the connection between the design of the superhero story and the mythology of the ancient folktale Moving beyond simple comparisons and common explanations this volume details how the workings of the superhero comics industry and the conventions of the medium have developed a culture like that of traditional epic storytelling It chronicles the continuation of the oral traditional culture of the early 20th century superhero industry in the endless variations on Superman and shows how Frederic Wertham s anti comic crusade in the mid 1950s helped make comics the most countercultural new medium of the 20th century By revealing how contemporary superhero comics like Geoff Johns Green Lantern and Warren Ellis s The Authority connect traditional aesthetics and postmodern theories this work explains why the superhero comic book flourishes in the new traditional shape of our acutely self conscious digital age
