Attar and the Persian Sufi Tradition L. Lewisohn, C.

Shackle, 2006-11-22 Farid al Din Attar d 1221 was the principal Muslim religious poet of the second half of the twelfth century. Best known for his masterpiece Mantiq al tayr or The Conference of Birds his verse is still considered to be the finest example of Sufi love poetry in the Persian language after that of Rumi. Distinguished by their provocative and radical theology of love many lines of Attar's epics and lyrics are cited independently of their poems as maxims in their own right. These pithy paradoxical statements are still known by heart and sung by minstrels throughout Iran Afghanistan Tajikistan and wherever Persian is spoken or understood such as in the lands of the Indo Pakistani Subcontinent. Designed to take its place alongside The Ocean of the Soul the classic study of Attar by Hellmut Ritter this volume offers the most comprehensive survey of Attar's literary works to date and situates his poetry and prose within the wider context of the Persian Sufi tradition. The essays in the volume are grouped in three sections and feature contributions by sixteen scholars from North America Europe and Iran which illustrate from a variety of critical perspectives the full range of Attar's monumental achievement. They show how and why Attar's poetical work as well as his mystical doctrines came to wield such tremendous and formative influence over the whole of Persian Sufism.

Message of Hazrat Inayat Khan: The Gathas Hazrat Inayat Khan,2020-09-28 There is a remarkable phrase in the Bible here it says Eat My flesh and drink My blood says Christ What does He mean by saying this He means in the first place that what a living being loves most is his food what he loves most he eats It has been proved in ferocious and dreadful famines by people eating their own children that food is dearer than their own child The word of Christ therefore Find out what it is in Me that you love which may become your nourishment which may become your food It is not this My flesh and blood this will not be sufficient to satisfy your appetite There is another part of My being which is in abundance and can nourish My numberless devotees Therefore before trying to eat My flesh and blood try to find out on what plane I really exist and what is My true being The lives of all the great saints show that not only their adversaries and opponents but also their near and dear friends have proved to be among their worst enemies There is a creature which loves its mate so much that it eats it Now as to the question what it is that Christ speaks of as his flesh and blood His flesh is the knowledge of God and His blood is the love of God because it is love that has a tendency so to speak to excite the circulation and it is knowledge which has the tendency to strengthen making man firm of which flesh is the symbol One thing without the other would be abnormal For instance flesh without blood or blood without flesh both are not normal conditions What gives normal health to the body and to the soul is flesh and blood both In the religious custom of the sacrament of bread and wine it is this secret which is symbolically expressed Secret Garden Faruk Dilaver,2020-04-25 In this book you our precious readers will find the aim of our creation the reason why we live material spiritual experiences that we must take heed during our life death as not being annihilated and decayed in the earth but as a birth and salvation and a passage to attain to meet with the Almighty Creator our aim of creation as knowing and becoming aware of the Creator and seeking and finding Him with endless love throughout our whole life the significance of love and being union with Him details of being purified and becoming mature by liberating the self from base desires contributions of love understanding and patience to our happiness in a form of sincere discourses given in a plain language through true stories we experienced and legendary stories of great masters We intend to share findings of our seeking for many years and show the TRUE FACE OF LIFE to you as much as we are able to see now Anyone who reads this book will attain to awareness rather than knowledge and thus reach to the pleasure of living Being aware of his unhappiness due to countless unimportant things that he is occupied with in this temporary world he abandons his fears and attains to peace and happiness with love understanding and tolerance
