

A SUMMERTIME NOVELLA

A woman with curly hair, seen from behind, is walking on a sandy beach towards the ocean. She is wearing a red one-piece swimsuit and has a white towel draped over her shoulders. The ocean is a deep blue, and the sky is a pale, hazy blue. The scene is captured in a soft, warm light, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

M. Coetzee's Politics of Life and Late Modernism in the Contemporary Novel Marc Farrant, 2024-03-05 Surveying the full breadth of J M Coetzee's career as both academic and novelist this book argues for the necessity of rethinking his profound indebtedness to literary modernism in terms of a politics of life Isolating a particular strain of late modernism epitomised by Kafka and Beckett Farrant claims that Coetzee's writings consistently demonstrate an agonistic engagement with the concept of life that involves an entanglement of politics and ethics which supersedes the singular theoretical frameworks often applied to Coetzee such as postcolonialism posthumanism and animal studies Running throughout his engagement with questions of modernity and colonialism storytelling and life writing human and non human life religion and post Enlightenment subjectivity Coetzee s politics of life yield a new literary cosmopolitanism for the twenty first century a powerful commentary on our interrelatedness that emphasises finitude and contingency as fundamental to the way we live together Trauma, Memory, and Narrative in the Contemporary South African Novel, 2012-01-01 The contributions to this volume probe the complex relationship of trauma memory and narrative By looking at the South African situation through the lens of trauma they make clear how the psychic deformations and injuries left behind by racism and colonialism cannot be mended by material reparation or by simply reversing economic and political power structures Western trauma theories as developed by scholars such as Caruth van der Kolk Herman and others are insufficient for analysing the more complex situation in a postcolony such as South Africa This is because Western trauma concepts focus on the individual traumatized by a single identifiable event that causes PTSD Post Traumatic Stress Disorder What we need is an understanding of trauma that sees it not only as a result of an identifiable event but also as the consequence of an historical condition in the case of South Africa that of colonialism and more specifically of apartheid For most black and coloured South Africans the structural violence of apartheid s laws were the existential condition under which they had to exist The living conditions in the townships pass laws relocation and racial segregation affected great parts of the South African population and were responsible for the collective traumatization of several generations This trauma however is not an unclaimed and unclaimable experience Postcolonial thinkers who have been reflecting on the experience of violence and trauma in a colonial context writing from within a Fanonian tradition have on the contrary believed in the importance of reclaiming the past and of transcending mechanisms of victimization and resentment so typical of traumatized consciousnesses Narration and the novel have a decisive role to play here Kagerou Daze, Vol. 8 (light novel) JIN (SHIZEN NO TEKI P), 2018-12-18 It was a certain summer day when they met It was a day that would go on for a long time forever As their enemies stood in their path members of the Mekukashi dan fell one after another After temporarily stalling their opponents Azami came up with a radical plan to seal them away but it could only succeed at the cost of the life of one of their own As their enemies began advancing again what fate with the Mekukashi dan choose Summertime Guests Wendy Francis, 2021-04-06 As featured in The Boston Globe The New York Post Bustle Woman s World South Shore Home Life Style Engaging Add this to beach reads along with those by Elin Hilderbrand Nancy Thayer and Dorothea Benton Frank Booklist THE SEAFARER IS THE PLACE TO SEE AND BE SEEN IN THE SUMMER With its rich history and famous guests the glamorous Boston hotel is no stranger to drama But the bustle at the iconic property reaches new heights one weekend in mid June when someone falls tragically to her death the event rippling through the lives of four very different people Bride to be Riley is at the hotel to plan her wedding She would have preferred a smaller more intimate celebration but her bossy mother in law has taken charge and her fianc hasn t seemed to notice Jean Paul the hotel s manager is struggling to keep his marriage and new family afloat but now he must devote all his
