

Water Corporation Submits 267 Memberships To Engineer

The Moran Water Supply Corporation submitted a list of 267 paid memberships to the organization for the engineering firm of Viers & Decker this week, according to County Judge Dudley Fincher.

The list is by no means final, said Fincher, who admits that he is unable to get an estimate on the ultimate number of members expected for the co-op.

"We still don't know which way the City of Moran is going to turn," explained Fincher, "although it now looks as if they intend to upgrade their present system and program on their own. However, Moran isn't the only reason that we can't make an estimate," Fincher continued. "There are many others who have expressed a definite interest and probably committed themselves. We are still working into the Brockersridge area as well as several other areas outside the county." According to the judge, the majority of the 267 members now listed are Shockellford County residents, but it also includes parties from Cleveland, Callahan, Stephens and Throckmorton Counties. "We have from 40 to 50 members from the west side of Shockellford County," said Fincher, "and we feel that this area could mushroom into something big. These people were not able to obtain water from the Shockellford County Rural Water Supply Corporation several years ago. It was not economically feasible to provide water service to these locations at the normal height of the lake. It's possible we can get water to them through our system."

"Unfortunately, not everyone who is interested can be listed on the system," said Fincher. "There are governmental and other prohibitions. Within one month, we should know where the line has to go. Billy Jacobs, the engineer from Viers & Decker, has been very cooperative about our property. And although he has already begun work on his report, we will receive the water supply plan report and his evaluation in approximately two weeks."

The corporation has engaged an attorney, David Harbort, to apply for a charter and handle other legal matters. The new corporation may be listed to serve a new number of residents the year-end issue of the corporation. A board of directors must be elected and set up.

The group's last application should be filed with FWS by September 1, said Fincher, or plans will need to be altered before that date.

Residents interested in the work of Adams, Clark, Decker, Harbort, and Viers & Decker in the Shockellford area, he said, have applied to the water supply corporation. The corporation should be contacted at the Box 278 office.
