Brimming with God Barbara J. Blodgett, Matthew Floding, 2015-08-13 The yearning to be a theologian is widespread Pastors students supervisors and mentors all wish to think theologically about their ministries but often feel inadequately prepared This book seeks to respond by showcasing a variety of approaches to theological reflection brought to bear upon actual situations in ministry It is written by theological field educators We define theological reflection as reflection upon lived embodied experiences in ministry that seeks to make sense of practice and form reflectors in habits for competent ministry An introductory chapter defines theological reflection as practiced within field education and points readers toward a diversity of approaches Eleven subsequent chapters present two reflections upon the same case each reflection written by a different author and representing a different reflection method The book s significance is as a resource for teaching theological reflection in a range of settings It not only offers a definition of and rationale for theological reflection but models various approaches to it Its use of cases furthermore models the use of case studies in theological education and pastoral practice more widely comprising both formal day schools and higher education institutions as well as informal church study groups and parachurch ministries in more than 140 countries In The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contributors explore the many facets of Christian education in terms of its impact on curriculum literacy teacher training outcomes and professional standards This encyclopedia is the first reference work devoted exclusively to chronicling the unique history of Christian education across the globe illustrating how Christian educators pioneered such educational institutions and reforms as universal literacy home schooling Sunday schools women s education graded schools compulsory education of the deaf and blind and kindergarten With an editorial advisory board of more than 30 distinguished scholars and five consulting editors The Encyclopedia of Christian Education contains more than 1 200 entries by 400 contributors from 75 countries These volumes covers a vast range of topics from Christian education History spanning from the church s founding through the Middle Ages to the modern day Denominational and institutional profiles Intellectual traditions in Christian education Biblical and theological frameworks curricula missions adolescent and higher education theological training and Christian pedagogy Biographies of distinguished Christian educators This work is ideal for scholars of both the history of Christianity and education as well as researchers and students of contemporary Christianity and modern religious education Enlighten Sung Hee Chang, Matthew Floding, 2020-10-28 Theological field education is an eye opening process for young ministers as they begin the challenging work of integrating theory into real world practice Enlighten Formational Learning in Theological Field Education shines a light on specific learning methods student ministers and their mentors can leverage to make the most of their field experience Expanding on the knowledge gathered in Engage A Theological Field Education Toolkit and Empower A Guide for Supervisor Mentors in Theological Field Education this book challenges students peer reflection group members and supervisor mentors to utilize each learning theory to achieve deeper formation Contributors to the volume introduce individual theories and identify potential areas of resistance and opportunities for growth through illustrative case studies These practical examples provide support for students facing common obstacles while encouraging all participants in the field education process to be open to new avenues of growth Preparing for Ministry George M. Hillman, Most seminaries now require their students to get real world training by way of supervised theological field education This volume presents the wide array of issues that must be understood in order to integrate theological education and practical ministry including the importance of theological field education its purpose and challenges the need for flexibility in meeting different students needs and the resources available to create a meaningful and educational experience The Acts and Proceedings of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada Presbyterian Church in Canada.

Encyclopedia of Christian Education George Thomas Kurian, Mark A. Lamport, 2015-05-07 Christianity regards teaching as one of the most foundational and critically sustaining ministries of the Church As a result Christian education remains one of the largest and oldest continuously functioning educational systems in the world
