important ideas

This is mainly about...

QUESTION

Wonder & search for answers

I wonder...

VISUALIZE

In my mind.
I see...

Create mental images as I read

INFER

Use text evidence & what I know to make sense of my reading

This probably means...

PREDICT

Use clues to infer
what may happen
next

I predict that...

CLUES IN

Understanding Readers' Understanding Robert J. Tierney, Patricia L. Anders, Judy Nichols Mitchell, 2013-02-01 This collection features papers addressing current issues in reading comprehension from cognitive and linguistic perspectives. Organized into three sections the volume investigates text considerations and reader text interactions. Each paper presents a substantial and comprehensive review of theory and research related to cognition and reading comprehension.

Designing Tasks for the Communicative Classroom David Nunan, 1989-03-09 This book integrates recent research and practice in language teaching into a framework for analysing learning tasks.

Fairness and Validation in Language Assessment Antony John Kunnan, 2000-10-12 Fairness of language tests and testing practices has been a concern among test developers and test users. The 19th annual Language Testing Research Colloquium held in 1997 in Florida brought this concern into focus. The papers in this volume offer an introduction to fairness and validation in the field of language assessment.

Psychology and Students with Special Needs Andrew J. Martin, Rayne A. Sperling, Kristie J. Newton, 2020-02-18 Handbook of Educational Psychology and Students with Special Needs provides educational and psychological researchers practitioners policy makers and graduate students with critical expertise on the factors and processes relevant to learning for students with special needs. This includes students with attention deficit hyperactivity disorder other executive function difficulties behavior and emotional disorders autism spectrum disorder intellectual disabilities learning disabilities dyslexia language and communication difficulties physical and sensory disabilities and more. With the bulk of educational psychology focused on mainstream or typically developing learners relatively little educational psychology theory research measurement or practice has attended to students with special needs. As clearly demonstrated in this book the factors and processes studied within educational psychology motivation and engagement cognition and neuroscience social emotional development instruction home and school environments and more are vital to all learners especially those at risk or disabled. Integrating guidance from the DSM 5 by the American Psychiatric Association and the International Classification of Diseases ICD 10 by the World Health Organization this book synthesizes and builds on existing interdisciplinary research to establish a comprehensive case for effective psycho educational theory research and practice that address learners with special needs. Twenty seven chapters by experts in the field are structured into three parts on diverse special needs categories perspectives from major educational psychology theories and constructs relevant to special needs learning development and knowledge building.
