Snell, Fredda Brown, 2000 For courses in Severe Multiple Disabilities Methods This highly successful text addresses the full range of curriculum topics involved in educating individuals with severe disabilities. Clear descriptions and explanations of best practices time proven techniques and a strong theory research base combine to create one of the most comprehensive texts of its kind. Its focus on meaningful inclusion of students with disabilities and their non disabled peers make this book an ideal main text for courses in severe disabilities.

Research in Education, 1973 Reading Instruction for Students who are at Risk Or Have Disabilities William D. Bursuck, Mary Damer, 2007 Organized according to the Reading First categories of reading development and instruction as presented in the report of the National Reading Panel this exciting and timely new text presents teaching strategies for children at risk including children of poverty children for whom English is not their primary language and children with learning and behavioral disabilities. These are the children No Child Left Behind challenges teachers to serve more effectively. The book is more than a list of teaching strategies that are scientifically validated the scientifically validated practices included are integrated into a systematic teaching process that stresses the use of student outcome data within authentic classroom contexts to guide practice. The teaching strategies have been field tested with at risk children in both rural and urban teaching settings. Most of the strategies have resulted from work the authors did in their recent four year federally funded model demonstration grant in which they have implemented an extensive reading problem prevention model in grades K-3 in three inner city schools. Thus the teaching strategies in the book are ones that the authors implemented every day with at risk children not just findings from research articles. Features of this First Edition Include Content organized around the five components validated by the National Reading Panel: phonemic awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, and comprehension. Readers learn how to use DIBELS and other curriculum based assessment results for early identification of children at risk of reading failure and to monitor student progress. A unique feature is using DIBELS assessments to pinpoint student skill development as they acquire alphabetic principle. Accompanying DVD shows teacher explicitly teaching letter sound recognition, regular word decoding, sight words, multisyllable word reading, passage reading, vocabulary, and comprehension. Text explains how to use Differentiated Instruction to maximize learning for all students. Specific strategies are detailed for implementing Response To Intervention RTI multi tier instruction during the reading block. Examines building vocabulary knowledge through direct and indirect teaching strategies. Comprehension strategies identified by the National Reading Panel that help students derive meaning from text are emphasized. Strategies for individualizing instruction for adolescents and children who are bilingual and/or ESL are included within each chapter. Effective strategies for managing classroom behavior including instruction groups are provided so that student behavior does not interfere with reading instruction.

365 Reading Activities Suzanne I. Barchers, 2004. Unlock the door to reading for your child and open up the world of knowledge. With 365 Reading Activities your child will look forward to reading. Through an imaginative array of language arts activities developed by reading experts your child will develop the necessary skills to become a confident reader. Deaf Learners Donald F. Moores, David S. Martin, 2006. This in depth collection by 17 renowned international scholars that details a developmental framework to maximize academic success for deaf students from kindergarten through grade 12. Part One The Context commences with an overview of the state of general education and that of deaf learners followed by a state of the art philosophical position on the selection of curriculum. Part Two The Content considers critical subjects for deaf learners and how to deliver them including mathematics, print literacy, science, social studies, and physical education. This section also addresses the role of itinerant services as well as how to teach Deaf culture, provide for students with multiple disabilities, and facilitate school to work transitions. Part Three Instructional Considerations Across the Curriculum provides suggestions and guidelines for assessing and planning programs for deaf students using meaningful contexts, optimizing the academic performance of deaf students with emphasis on access and opportunities, implementing a cognitive strategy that encourages teaching for and about thinking as an overriding principle.

establishing instructional and practical communication in the classroom especially in relation to ASL and English based signing and solving old problems with new strategies including Web based technologies resources and applications The lessons of these assembled scholars coalesce in the Part Four Summary as a general recommendation for ongoing adaptability a fitting capstone to this extraordinary volume of work
