With the heated discussion around MeToo, journalistic reporting on domestic abuse, and the popularity of true crime documentaries, gendered media discourse around violence and harassment has never been more prominent. The Routledge Companion to Gender, Media and Violence is an outstanding reference source to the key topics, problems, and debates in this important subject and is the first collection on media and violence to take a gendered intersectional approach. Comprising over 50 chapters by a team of interdisciplinary and international contributors, the book is structured around the following parts: News; Representing reality; Gender based violence online; Feminist responses. The media examples examined range from Australia to Zimbabwe and span print and online news, documentary film and television, podcasts, pornography, memoir, comedy, memes, influencer videos and digital feminist protest. Types of violence considered include domestic abuse, honour based violence, sexual violence and harassment, female genital mutilation, cutting, child sexual abuse, transphobic violence and the aftermath of conflict. Good practice is considered in relation to both responsible news reporting and pedagogy. The Routledge Companion to Gender Media and Violence is essential reading for students and researchers in Gender Studies, Media Studies, Sociology and Criminology. Chapter 30 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4.0 license.
