College Rankings Today Store Hours:

The Corporatization of the Business School Tony Huzzard, Mats Benner, Dan Kärreman, 2017-04-21 With business schools becoming increasingly market driven questionable trends have emerged such as the conflation of academic and corporate management and the notion that academics and students are market players who respond rationally to market signals Using individual studies from leading scholars in a variety of disciplines and countries this book identifies the global pressures behind these trends It focuses on the debates surrounded the commercialization of business schools and the rise of different methods of measuring their success In their unique approach the authors and editors discuss the impact of the confrontation between the timeless values embodied by Minerva the Roman goddess of Wisdom and the hard realities of competition and corporatization in modern society This book will be compelling reading for students and academics in critical management studies organizational studies public management and higher education as well as for stakeholders in academia and educational policy Rowing News ,2000-04-30 The Magazine of Business ,1922 The Business of Higher

Education John C. Knapp Ph.D., David J. Siegel, 2009-10-22 At a time of great economic uncertainty The Business of Higher Education looks at the pros and cons of colleges and universities taking a more business like approach to fulfilling their missions How can colleges and universities navigate their way between shrinking commitments and the increasing expectations of their students Does the answer lie in taking a more business like approach This extraordinary resource considers the costs and benefits to both public and private institutions and to society when academe embraces business models for improving cost efficiency marketing hiring practices and customer service Bringing together a diverse team of contributors from the academic and business worlds The Business of Higher Education offers 35 essays in three volumes The first volume explores issues of leadership and culture the second focuses on management and fiscal strategies and the third volume takes up issues of marketing and consumer interests Throughout the work balances the contrasting perspectives of those within the academy and those outside of it as it considers whether higher education and the public interest are ultimately helped or harmed by the application of business methods to essential academic functions Tobacco ,1928
