Hong,2021-11-02 The rise of the Auntie Sewing Squad a massive mutual aid network of volunteers who provided free masks in the wake of US government failures during the COVID 19 pandemic In March 2020 when the US government failed to provide personal protective gear during the COVID 19 pandemic the Auntie Sewing Squad emerged Founded by performance artist Kristina Wong the mutual aid group sewed face masks with a bold social justice mission to protect the most vulnerable and most neglected Written and edited by Aunties themselves The Auntie Sewing Squad Guide to Mask Making Radical Care and Racial Justice tells a powerful story As the pandemic unfolded hate crimes against Asian Americans spiked In this climate of fear and despair a team of mostly Asian American women using the familial label Auntie formed online gathered momentum and sewed masks at home by the thousands The Aunties nimbly made and funneled masks to asylum seekers Indigenous communities incarcerated people farmworkers and others disproportionately impacted by COVID 19 When anti lockdown agitators descended on state capitals and eventually the US Capitol the Aunties dug in And as the nation erupted in rebellion over police violence against Black people the Aunties supported and supplied Black Lives Matter protesters and organizations serving Black communities Providing hundreds of thousands of homemade masks met an urgent public health need and expressed solidarity care and political action in a moment of social upheaval The Auntie Sewing Squad is a quirky fast moving and adaptive mutual aid group that showed up to meet a critical need Led primarily by women of color the group includes some who learned to sew from mothers and grandmothers working for sweatshops or as a survival skill passed down by refugee relatives The Auntie Sewing Squad speaks back to the history of exploited immigrant labor as it enacts an intersectional commitment to public health for all This collection of essays and ephemera is a community document of the labor and care of the Auntie Sewing Squad
