Tjens overall expedition commander committed several major errors during the operation Towards its end he wallowed in despair failing to carry through on several ruses devised by his subordinates which in the hands of a commander not already resigned to death might have tipped the scale to the Bismarck's survival Both sides made crucial errors but those of Gunther L. Tjens proved most decisive As Charles de Gaulle pithily observed Victory often goes to the army that makes the least mistakes not the most brilliant plans The sinking of the Bismarck demonstrated the truth of this aphorism A handful of poor choices at vital turning points on the part of one man L. Tjens decided the fate of the KMS Bismarck and cost the lives of 2 088 men aboard her or 94.7% of her crew including his own The Sinking of the Bismarck The History of the Battle that Destroyed Nazi Germany's Most Famous Battleship chronicles the demise of World

The Destruction of the Bismarck David Jay Bercuson, Holger H. Herwig, 2001 Bismarck Michael Tamelander, Niklas Zetterling, 2020-01-10 The author of Blitzkrieg covers one of the most dramatic events of the Second World War in an outstanding book about naval warfare.

World War II History When the German battleship Bismarck, a masterpiece of engineering well armored with a main artillery of eight 15 inch guns, left the port of Gotenhafen for her first operation on the night of May 18, 1941, the British battlecruiser Hood and the new battleship Prince of Wales were ordered to find her quickly as several large convoys were heading for Britain. On May 24 Bismarck was found off the coast of Greenland but the ensuing battle was disastrous for the British. The Hood was totally destroyed within minutes with only three crewmen surviving and Prince of Wales was badly damaged. The chase resumed until the German behemoth was finally caught this time by four British capital ships supported by torpedo bombers from the carrier Ark Royal. The icy North Atlantic roiled from the crash of shellfire and bursting explosions until finally the Bismarck collapsed, sending nearly two thousand German sailors to a watery grave. Tamelander and Zetterling's work rests on stories from survivors and the latest historical discoveries. The book starts with a thorough account of maritime developments from 1871 up to the era of the giant battleship and ends with a vivid account hour by hour of the dramatic and fateful hunt for the mighty Bismarck, Nazi Germany's last hope to pose a powerful surface threat to Allied convoys. Exciting story telling recreates the thrill of the hunt.

World War II British Battleship vs German Battleship Angus Konstam, 2020-12-24 Featuring up to date historical and marine archaeological research, a novel comparative exploration of an ever popular subject, the epic clashes of British and German surface battleships during World War II.

The Sinking of the Bismarck Will Berthold, 2005-06-25 When the Bismarck was sighted off Bergen, the news of her sailing quickly reached the Admiralty. The German squadron was intercepted in the Denmark Strait. In the first bitter engagement, HMS Hood, the pride of the Royal Navy, was blown up and the new battleship HMS Prince of Wales damaged. From the moment of that disastrous first action, it became a crucial call on the Royal Navy to destroy the German battleship. In this book, told from the point of view of the crew of the Bismarck, is described the hunt and the final kill. The end is a horrific portrayal of defeat at sea. Berthold tells this great and exciting story in human terms; he depicts the fears and courage of the crew as the end slowly inevitably approaches; he recreates the thoughts of home that accompanied the sailors to their deaths; he speaks against the futility of all warfare. There will be few who will not be enthralled and moved by this vivid account of a great naval action seen in this book from the side of the

Jim Crossley, 2010 When the German Battleship Bismarck was commissioned in 1940 she was one of the fastest and most powerful ships afloat To the Royal Navy and the security of Allied shipping in the Atlantic she posed an enormous threat she must be destroyed When she broke out into the Atlantic in 1941 some of Britain's most powerful ships were sent to pursue and sink her The first encounter proved disastrous for the British Battleship HMS Hood which was sunk at 0800 on 24 May Bismarck had sustained several hits from HMS Prince of Wales but the Royal Navy were unsure of the extent of the damage and whether she would attempt to return to Germany for major repairs or sail for France to lick her wounds Previous written accounts suggest that the whereabouts and course of Bismarck were unknown to the Allies until discovered by a RAF Catalina at 1030 on 26 May This was followed an hour later by the arrival of a Fairey Swordfish flying off HMS Ark Royal This aircraft hit the Bismarck with her torpedo and severely damaged her steering gear It was now only a matter of time before the full firepower of the British capital ships would close in and destroy Germany's greatest ship This new book revises previous theory of the events in which earlier publications have failed to reveal the full extent of the capabilities of both British and German Radar or the significance of British ULTRA signal intercepts Battleship Bismarck William H. Killing the Bismarck Iain Ballantyne, 2014-05-19 An excellent account. A suspenseful narrative that will keep readers on the edge of their seats. WWII History Magazine. In May 1941 the German battleship Bismarck accompanied by heavy cruiser Prinz Eugen broke out into the Atlantic to attack Allied shipping. The Royal Navy's pursuit and subsequent destruction of Bismarck was an epic of naval warfare. In this new account of those dramatic events at the height of the Second World War Iain Ballantyne draws extensively on the graphic eyewitness testimony of veterans to construct a thrilling story mainly from the point of view of the British battleships, cruisers and destroyers involved. He describes the tense atmosphere as cruisers play a lethal cat and mouse game shadowing Bismarck in the icy Denmark Strait. We witness the shocking destruction of the British battle cruiser Hood in which all but three of her ship's complement were killed an event that filled pursuing Royal Navy warships including the battered battleship Prince of Wales with a thirst for revenge. While Swordfish torpedo bombers try desperately to cripple the Bismarck we sail in destroyers on their own daring torpedo attacks battling mountainous seas. Finally the author takes us into the final showdown as battleships Rodney and King George V supported by cruisers Norfolk and Dorsetshire destroy the pride of Hitler's fleet. This vivid superbly researched account portrays this epic saga through the eyes of so called ordinary sailors caught up in extraordinary events conveying the horror and majesty of war at sea in all its cold brutality and awesome power
