Sleep Hacks Today:

Technosleep Catherine Coveney, Michael Greaney, Eric L. Hsu, Robert Meadows, Simon J. Williams, 2023-06-25 This book draws on a variety of substantive examples from science technology medicine literature and popular culture to highlight how a new technoscientifically mediated and modified phase and form of technosleep is now in the making in the global north at least and to discuss the consequences for our relationships to sleep the values we accord sleep and the very nature and normativities of sleep itself. The authors discuss how technosleep at its simplest denotes the coming together or entanglements of sleep and technology and sensitizes us to various shifts in sleep technology relations through culture time and place. In doing so it pays close attention to the salience and significance of these trends and transformations to date in everyday night life their implications for sleep inequalities and the related issues of sleep and social justice they suggest.

Although the year 1984 is hurtling back into the distant past Orwell s novel Nineteen Eighty Four continues to have a huge readership and to help shape the world of 2084 Sales of Orwell s terrifying tale have recently spiked because of current worries about alternate facts post truth and fake news 1984 and Philosophy brings together brand new up to the minute thinking by philosophers about Nineteen Eighty Four as it relates to today s culture politics and everyday life Some of the thinking amounts to thoughtcrime but we managed to sneak it past the agents of the Ministry of Truth so this is a book to be read quickly before the words on the page mysteriously transform into something different Who s controlling our lives and are they getting even more levers to control us Is truth objective or just made up What did Orwell get right and did he get some things wrong Are social media opportunities for liberation or instruments of oppression How can we fight back against totalitarian control Can Big Brother compel us to love him How does the language we use affect the way we think Do we really need the unifying power of hate Why did Orwell make Nineteen Eighty Four so desperately hopeless Can science be protected from poisonous ideology Can we really believe two contradictory things at once Who surveils the surveilors
