E. Vervaele, 2022-02-17 This book focuses on the enforcement aspect of tobacco control policy and argues that the intense regulation of the tobacco market will never be successful as long as it can be circumvented by the availability of illicit tobacco products Yet current efforts to combat illicit tobacco trade are insufficient suffering from several flaws and gaps at the regulatory and operational levels The aim of this book is to provide an analysis of the legal framework and practice of enforcement with regard to illicit tobacco products Combining criminological and legal perspectives it presents and critically analyses the phenomenon of illicit tobacco trade as well as the policies legal frameworks and practices in six EU countries with regard to combatting this phenomenon assessing the strengths and weaknesses of their approaches Furthermore it studies the relationship between the EU and third countries e g Ukraine in terms of how the EU can influence policy and enforcement in these countries in order to counter illicit tobacco trafficking Not exclusively focusing on the EU the book also includes an analysis of enforcement against illicit tobacco products in the US The EU Member States analysed in the book Belgium Germany Italy Latvia the Netherlands and Poland reflect the range of currently available approaches Some of them have ratified the WHO Protocol against tobacco smuggling others have not They belong to different legal traditions and face different challenges due to their respective border situations While Belgium and the Netherlands are key entry ports to the EU Poland and Latvia represent the Eastern land border of the EU with various regional challenges Italy has a long maritime border where trafficking is possible from Northern Africa and from the Middle East It also has significant experience in fighting organised crime Lastly Germany is the largest market in Europe and situated in the middle of these trafficking routes
