Social Reading Cultures on BookTube, Bookstagram, and BookTok Bronwyn Reddan, Leonie Rutherford, Amy Schoonens, Michael Dezuanni, 2024-04-30

This book examines the reading cultures developed by communities of readers and book lovers on BookTube Bookstagram and BookTok as an increasingly important influence on contemporary book and literary culture. It explores how the affordances of social media platforms invite readers to participate in social reading communities and engage in creative and curatorial practices that express their identity as readers and book lovers. The interdisciplinary team of authors argue that by creating new opportunities for readers to engage in social reading practices bookish social media has elevated the agency and visibility of readers and book consumers within literary culture. It has also reshaped the cultural and economic dynamics of book recommendations by creating a space in which different actors are able to form an identity as mediators of reading culture. Concise and accessible this introduction to an increasingly central set of literary practices is essential reading for students and scholars of literature, sociology, media and cultural studies as well as teachers and professionals in the book and library industries

Child as Citizen Giuliana Fenech, 2025-08-15 Contributions by Daniela Brockdorff, Nina Christensen, Jill Coste, Katrin Dautel, Justyna Deszcz, Tryhubczak, Giuliana Fenech, Naomi Hamer, Irena Barbara Kalla, Anne Klomberg, Sonali Kulkarni, Elizabeth Leach, Leung Ann, Marie Murnaghan, Emily Murphy, Emilie Owens, Nicola Parker, Patrycja Poniatowska, Meg Rosoff and Farriba Schulz. Child as Citizen Agency and Activism in Children's Literature and Culture addresses children's and young adult agency and activism across literature and culture demonstrating how these forces influence child citizenship. Contributors to this volume highlight the agentic voices and activist practices that are growing across all spheres of young people's lives as well as the challenges to active citizenship that children growing up in unjust sociopolitical contexts face. The volume is interdisciplinary and draws on the sociology of childhood, children's literature studies, youth culture studies, media technology and cultural studies and

Anthropocene ecofeminist and disability studies Agency occurs in and around literature and storytelling and this collection establishes how it is always influenced by identity as well as geopolitics how it is both subjective and collective how it is cultural and embodied and how like citizenship it is not a static status but rather an ongoing negotiation In this collection contributors invite readers to consider agency as a system of relations between children themselves between children and adults children and institutions and children and nation states as well as between children and the nonhuman This book reviews the interconnectedness between these relationships and attempts to untangle some of the complications that emerge

Yvonne Westphal, 2024-04-08 Honey and Spice Bolu Babalola, 2022 Introducing internationally bestselling author Bolu Babalola's dazzling debut novel full of passion humor and heart that centers on a young Black British woman who has no interest in love and unexpectedly finds herself caught up in a fake relationship with the man she warned her girls about Sweet like plantain hot like pepper They taste the best when together Sharp tongued and secretly soft hearted Kiki Banjo has just made a huge mistake As an expert in relationship evasion and the host of the popular student radio show Brown Sugar she's made it her mission to make sure the women of the African Caribbean Society at Whitewell University do not fall into the mess of relationships players and heartbreak But when the Queen of the Unbothered kisses Malakai Korede the guy she just publicly denounced as The Wasteman of Whitewell in front of every Blackwellian on campus she finds her show on the brink They're soon embroiled in a fake relationship to try and salvage their reputations and save their futures Kiki has never surrendered her heart before and a player like Malakai won't be the one to change that no matter how charming he is or how electric their connection feels But surprisingly entertaining study sessions and intimate late night talks at old fashioned diners force Kiki to look beyond her own presumptions Is she ready to open herself up to something deeper How to end a love story Yulin Kuang, 2024 Helen Zhang hasn't seen Grant Shepard once in the thirteen years since the tragic accident that bound their lives together forever Now a bestselling author Helen pours everything into her career She's even scored a coveted spot in the writers room of the TV adaptation of her popular young adult novels and if she can hide her imposter syndrome and overcome her writer's block surely the rest of her life will fall into place too LA is the fresh start she needs After all no one knows her there Except Grant has done everything in his power to move on from the past including building a life across the country And while the panic attacks have never quite gone away he's well liked around town as a screenwriter He knows he shouldn't have taken the job on Helen's show but it will open doors to developing his own projects that he just can't pass up Grant's exactly as Helen remembers him charming funny popular and lovable in ways that she's never been And Helen's exactly as Grant remembers too brilliant beautiful closed off But working together is messy and electrifying and Helen's parents who have never forgiven Grant have no idea he's in the picture at all. When secrets come to light they must reckon with the fact that theirs was never meant to be any kind of love story. And yet the key to making peace with their past and themselves might just lie in holding on to each other in the present.
