We Grew Up Together We Grew Up Together:

The Loss of a Life Partner Carolyn Ambler Walter, 2003 Through discussions of various theories of grief narratives of the bereaved obtained in interviews with 22 men and women case study analysis and chapter summaries this text integrates the literature about and the bereavement experiences of partners in varying types of relationships LGBTQ Culture Bruce E. Drushel, 2020-12-17 Recent decades have seen remarkable changes in the cultural visibility legal status and social acceptance of LGBTQ people from positive representations of queerness in television series like The L Word and Will Grace to films about queer intersectionality like Moonlight to openly gay and lesbian elected officials and leaders in the business community to the end of anti sodomy laws and marriage discrimination With these advances have come assimilation of the queer subculture into the mainstream and with it loss of both some of the stigmatization of non heteronormativity and the very cornerstones of the distinctiveness of LGBTQ communities including queer neighbourhoods bars and nightclubs bookstores publications and other queer businesses Queer couples and their children are migrating from LGBTQ enclaves to neighbourhoods with better schools queer singles meet in virtual spaces rather than in bars and LGBTQ bookstores and community centres once the hub of queer communities are closing replaced by Amazon com and social media These changes raise the question of how LGBTQ culture is changing and whether like many assimilated subcultures before it it may be in fact endangered This book examines these seismic changes their sociological and cultural implications reminisces about what has been lost and gained and hints at what the future may hold for LGBTQ people The chapters in this book were originally published in a special issue of the Journal of Homosexuality A Town Without Steel Judith Modell, 2014-11-30 Photographs by Charlee Brodsky In 1986 with little warning the USX Homestead Works closed Thousands of workers who depended on steel to survive were left without work A Town Without Steel looks at the people of Homestead as they reinvent their views of household and work and place in this world The book details the modifications and revisions of domestic strategies in a public crisis In some ways unique and in some ways typical of American industrial towns the plight of Homestead sheds light on social cultural and political developments of the late twentieth century In this anthropological and photographic account of a town facing the crisis of deindustrialization A Town Without Steel focuses on families Reminiscent of Margaret Byington and Lewis Hine s approach in Homestead Charlee Brodsky s photographs document the visual dimension of change in Homestead The mill that dominated the landscape transformed to a vast empty lot a crowded commercial street turns into a ghost town and an abundance of well kept homes become an abandoned street of houses for sale The individual narratives and family snapshots Modell s interpretations and Brodsky s photographs all evoke the tragedy and the resilience of a town whose primary source of self identification no longer exists Crawl John McCormick, 2021-11-21 Set in Belfast at the end of the 1980s Crawl follows the lives and loves of a group of friends during the course of a traditional Christmas Eve pub crawl As the day progresses events unfold that force the friends to examine their beliefs and to ask the question Can love conquer god      The 1988 Dodgers K. P. Wee,2018-08-24 When most baseball fans think back to the 1988 World Series between the Los Angeles Dodgers and Oakland Athletics they probably remember Kirk Gibson s dramatic home run off Dennis Eckersley Orel Hershiser s shutout streak and dominant postseason pitching that got them there or perhaps the fact that it remains to this day the last World Championship for the Dodgers In The 1988 Dodgers Reliving the Championship Season K P Wee tells the story of this incredible year More than just Gibson or Hershiser the team s success came from a true collective effort in which all 25 players on the roster made significant contributions throughout the season Featuring dozens of interviews with players including those lesser known Dodgers who were just as important to the team as the stars coaches scouts and general manager Fred Claire Wee provides a refreshing view of the 1988 season sharing personal stories and little known anecdotes told to him by the players and staff The players also reflect on the importance of the entire team that season their careers following the World Championship and life after baseball giving readers a complete inside look at a season and team to remember      The Impure Kaitlyn Pennington,2021-11-05 Twenty one year old Daniella Reilly always believed that her mother s tales were nothing but fiction But when she is taken to Seattle by her long time friends Madison Derrick and Masen Daniella meets people that she had been told did not exist That is when she realizes that her mother s stories of monsters and magic might actually be true Vampires Werewolves Warlocks and Witches all exist among us and Daniella finds herself launched into their world She finds that not only does she have family in this strange new world but her mother is not who she believed her to be Now knowing the truth of her childhood and family Daniella joins Andrew James Amaelia and Oliver on a mission to bring her mother s work to a stop and to find a man that may not want to be found Daniella s main goal after discovering all that she has is to make sure that her newfound family and herself all survive what s coming and stick together despite the obstacles      Jesus and the Crusades Against Evil Shane Duranleau,2019-05-06 Mankind is between good and evil and Jesus is coming for the judgment for the living and the dead This judgment is to overcome against evil with all the faithful of humanity living and the dead to fight against the extinction of earth with the decision between faithful and the temptation of evil All the judged faithful and the angels fight along with Jesus Evil is in a great many people buildings objects feelings questions of what if with the ever changing roads of futures and false beliefs of other things Evil is a tempting of the future with the unholy for eternity all for money lust greed betrayal being against all the commandments of God s covenant with mankind against Jesus against judgment of the living and the dead and especially against the everlasting kingdom of Christ s eternal love A great act is unfolding at this very moment in time and the good and the evil of all the world will clash like superheated anvil s thundered up rage Very eager evil isn t asleep in darkness anymore and the good with all overpowering light come at a stand and we the people will experience in here and now through the many eyes of accounts of various soul enlightenments Now is the journey of faith to salvation      Oral History Reimagined: Emerging Research and Opportunities Pack, Sam,2020-03-20 The traditional method of composing the life history as a flowing narrative is not only morally dishonest but also intellectually inadequate because it conveys the false impression of a chronologically timeless and uninterrupted soliloquy. They are highly processed, constructed, and reified. Questions have been removed, entire sections have been reordered, and redundancies have been deleted. After the multiple stages involved in transforming a narrative life into an inscribed text, the final product bears little resemblance to the original transcription of the interview. By focusing only on the final product, life histories ignore the other two components in the communicative process. Oral History Reimagined: Emerging Research and Opportunities demonstrates the potential of the life history to serve as a new way of writing vulnerably about the other by refusing to hide the authors by sharing equal billing in a dialogic encounter with their informants in order to produce an ethnographic narrative that is multivocal, conversational, and co-constructed. The book examines the idea that a reflexive ethnography in the form of a reciprocal exchange between researchers and informants constitutes the logical extension of reflexivity in anthropological research. The book's ultimate goal is a balance that dissolves the distinction between the ethnographer as theorizing being and the informant as passive data that reduces the gap between subject and object and that presents both ethnographer and informant as having active voices. Featuring topics on life histories, reflexive ethnography, and narrative structure of autoethnography, it is ideally designed for anthropologists, ethnographers, historians, policymakers, academicians, researchers, and students.
